PAPER MONEY

OCTOBER 1967 / 75 CENTS

UNITED STATES GOLD COINS

Dollar. 1889. Last year. Choice Uncirculated. Minute reverse granular defects as made (discernible with a glass). Lists in the "Guide Book" at $100.00	62.50
Quarter Eagle. 1894. Very Fine to Extremely Fine. Only 4,000 regulars made	67.50
Three Dollars. 1856 "S". Medium size S. Fine to Very Fine. Clean and acceptable..	192.50
Twenty Dollars. 1907. High relief St. Gaudens design with Roman numerals (MCMVII). Flat rim type. Lustrous Uncirculated, but with almost imperceptible suggestions of rubbing on the high spots. Nearly completely free from the commonly found handling marks and nicks, the rims lacking the normally seen signs of abuse. Well above average!	690.00
Fifty Dollars Round. 1915 "S". Panama-Pacific Exposition. Lustrous, almost fully brilliant Uncirculated. Mostly perfect; about as nice as this large heavy coin is found. Only 483 pieces minted. Seldom offered separately from the octagonal variety or the set	4,175.00
1855. WASS, MOLITOR & CO., San Francisco, Calif. Strictly Very Fine; unevenly struck-up on the reverse (but the wreath exceptionally bold). With a few serious handling defects (as almost always seen upon this cumbersome piece) but not tooled or "improved" as many are, and without the inevitable multitude of tiny surface nicks and digs common to this mammoth coin. A desirable specimen of this long popular Pioneer rarity, excellent for display, and as nice as any that we have seen in years	4,300.00

Foreign Gold Coins and Medals

Bolivia. 1791. CHARLES IV. 8 Escudos. Potosi. Rare laureated bust type. Friedberg 10 (pg. 63, $350). Mostly Extremely Fine. Not fully impressed upon the obverse but lustrous; a remarkably clean and choice example	267.50
Mexico. 1871. Republic. 20 Pesos. Guanajuato "S". F-124 (pg. 305, $200.). Abt. Uncirculated, lustrous. Both obverse and reverse dies badly broken. A popular and underpriced type coin, which can only appreciate in value.	225.00
Salvador. 1892. 20 Pesos. Draped and laureated Liberty head to l. Rev. Arms. C.A.M. F-1 (pg. 339, at a ridiculous $500). Extremely Fine; minor rim impairment on either side. The rarest denomination of the very rare and long desirable 1892 set of four pieces. Conservatively valued at $1,500 today, but with private sale records exceeding $2,000	1,175.00
Venezuela. 1888. 100 Bolivares. Head of Bolivar r. Rev. Arms. Value expressed upon the reverse in grams (GR.32.2580). F-2 (pg. 401, $300.). Very Fine or better; unimportant evidence of obverse bag handling	185.00
Large Gold Medals. AUSTRIA. Marriage of the young Emperor Franz Joseph to Elizabeth of Barvaria, April 24, 1854. Splendidly executed conjoined busts to the r. by K. Lange. Rev. Detailed view of the marriage ceremony. 55.5 mm. 1,887 grains. Slightly impaired brilliant Proof; a single minor rim defect on either side. Very rare	267.50

It is indeed an honor to have been elected to serve as president of this great association of ours. My thanks is again extended to all of you who supported me over the years for the board of governors as well as for this high office.

Arthur Sipe

The 76th annual convention of the American Numismatic Association is now history; it was one of the finest conventions I had the privilege to attend. I extend my sincere congratulations to "Sid" Smith, general chairman, and to "Doug" Brown, president of the Florida United Numismatists, the host club, and all the members of their hard-working committees for the excellent work they did to make this convention possible and a memorable one.

We appreciate and thank most sincerely the chairmen and committee members of the various ANA committees who most carefully planned for and conducted the many interesting and enlightening meetings at the convention. The meetings and social gatherings of the affiliated groups were most enjoyable.

The outstanding auction conducted by James Kelly of Paramount International Coin Corporation was outstanding; his handling of the sale of the 1913 Liberty Head Nickel was superb and spectacular with an overflow audience on the edge of their seats.

We extend our thanks also to all of you who attended the 76th convention in the fabulous Americana in Miami Beach, because only by your presence and interest was this convention possible.

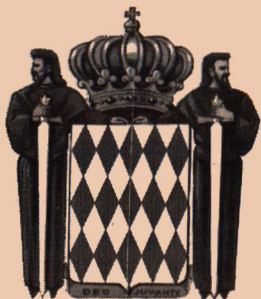

The emphasis at the Florida convention on the young collectors in our association and their intense interest in the hobby was most gratifying. I hope those clubs who do not now include juniors in their membership will arrange to have at least one junior night per year and more often if possible.

The Young Numismatists Committee of the ANA headed by Grover Criswell, Jr. and Mrs. Hazel Lindstrom is anxious for any ideas or suggestions you might have to offer this junior program in an effort to reach more and more young people and interest them in our hobby.

The board of governors appointed at the Florida convention Edward C. Rochette acting executive director of the ANA. Let me assure you that our office staff in Colorado Springs will make every effort to give each of you the best possible service. Our program of extending the various services of this association to our members will be continued and expanded.

On August 20th, I attended funeral services in Newport, Arkansas, for S. W. Freeman, the ANA's capable advertising manager since 1958 and chairman of the very important Washington Educational Committee, where he performed an outstanding service.

"S. W." or "Freeman" as he was affectionately known served his hobby and association with distinction and with a deep sense of loyalty. He was an intimate and close friend of mine for many years. I will certainly miss his counsel and advice in the crucial months ahead. We have lost a good friend.

Coins of Monaco

1515-1837

by Raymond de Vos

ANA 55147 - OIN 102

The first documented evidence of the existence of a mint in Monaco dates from the time of Lucien Grimaldi (1494-1523). He was Seigneur, or Lord of the domain of Monaco, Menton and Ventimiglia, and his right to rule was duly recognized by Louis XII, king of France. From the latter he also received the right to coin money on a parity with the coinage of France. Although contemporary references state that the mint in Monaco was very productive, only one coin has survived. It is the gold coin listed as Friedberg #1, and an almost exact replica of the ecu d'or of Louis XII. The legend on the Monegasque coin has however given cause to question its authenticity since Lucien is called "Prince," which he was not. One can well imagine that the assumption of such a regal title without proper recognition and backing from a superior power such as France or Spain would not go unchallenged by the neighboring nobility. It would be entirely out of keeping with the custom of the time to take the title of Prince without formal recognition as such. For reasons not fully explained the coin is now accepted as being genuine, and since it is the only one in existence it is perhaps better to let the matter stand.

In 1523 Lucien Grimaldi was murdered by Andrea Doria which was a tragedy for Monaco. Lucien, for his time, was a very enlightened Lord, inclined more to the study of law and economics than to war and conquest or intrigue. He tried to bring some measure of stability and prosperity to a small country which had been ruled mostly in absentia by war lords in the pay of the king of France, and which, as a result, was far from being self sustaining. Although nominally free of taxation, the country was obliged to support the French garrison stationed within its ramparts, and this proved to be ruinous. With the death of Lucien Grimaldi, all coining ceased and the mint closed after having been in operation from 1515 to 1523.

At this point it might be useful to examine the "right to coin" and its significance. Today it is generally recognized as a statement of sovereignty, or prima facie evidence of freedom from vassalage. During medieval times it was more in the nature of a financial boon granted by the king. Sovereignty was inherent in one's title and position as the owner and ruler of certain lands, cities or provinces. With the rise of importance of a middle class of artisans, merchants and bankers and the gradual impoverishment of the nobility, it was no small matter to be offered an additional source of revenue. It was then called, and still is, "Seigneurage," which really means, Lord's Right. The temptation of course would be to mint lead and call it gold, but the king granting the right to coin also insisted that it be exactly as his own coinage, in size for base metals, and in fineness for the noble metals, thus guaranteeing complete interchangeability. There was still profit in the operation in spite of the regulation, and that is why it was so eagerly sought.

For a coining operation to become a good financial venture it must be run on as large a scale as is possible which engenders difficulties of distribution and circulation. If one had troops he could pay them in coin of the realm. Foreign merchants could be paid with this money, but one could still not deny the use of the king's money, even within the country since the agreement included complete interchangeability. In order to overcome inherent limitations of circulation and distribution within a small country recourse was had to "concessionaires." These intermediaries, in return for a portion of the Seigneurage profit, would see to it that the money went into circulation on a worthwhile scale. This meant that large quantities would be picked up at the mint of origin and deposited in a bank, some distance from the home country for eventual distribution. As an additional precaution towards securing complete public acceptance of the "foreign" coinage, we note striking similarities between the coins of the major powers and that of their vassal states.

The second mint in Monaco was started in 1640 during the rule of Prince Honoré II. This mint has two distinct periods of operation, one under Spanish influence, the other under French influence. Honoré Grimaldi became Seigneur of Monaco while still a minor. This meant that a regent had to be found who would rule till Honoré reached his majority. The commune chose to appoint Prince Valdetare, the uncle of Honoré, to act as regent, but it turned out to be a very unfortunate choice. The Prince immediately took Honoré and his sister to Milan for their education, and then made a treaty with the Count of Fuentes, ruler of Milan, stipulating that Monaco should be occupied by a Spanish garrison and that the city should be responsible for the total maintenance of this garrison, including pay. Nominally, the garrison was to be under the command of the Seigneur of Monaco, but no one was expected to take this provision seriously.

During the ensuing years the Prince of Valdetare ruled Monaco, not for the benefit of the residents, but rather for the benefit of the Count of Fuentes. This created an intolerable situation which helped to oust the Spanish and introduce the French. Honoré returned to Monaco in 1916 but found himself completely deprived of authority. As a result he spent his time in improving his own situation. He began to introduce the title of Prince in connection with his name and by 1619 completely suppressed the patrimonial name and replaced it with the dynastic number. It was not until 1633 that the official recognition of "Prince" was made and properly recorded in the Spanish chancellery and protocol. In 1925 Honoré had already received the Order of the Golden Fleece, thus additional honors and privileges were not entirely unexpected.

A tallero exists from the period before 1625, but it is known that no mint existed in Monaco and that the coin was undoubtedly minted in Compians where Prince Valdetare had his mint. The quartering of the Grimaldi arms is unique in this instance, since it is never found again on any other coinage of Monaco. Presumably Prince Valdetare wished to show the connection with his house, and perhaps he expected eventual annexation. It is difficult to visualize other reasons for him to coin money in the name of Honoré II, still a minor, and use the name of Monaco.

At this time the mint in Compiano was issuing a scudo with the bust of Prince Valdetare on the obverse and the arms of Valdetare on the reverse. In 1640 the Monaco mint began its operations, and the coins issued were made in conformity with those already in use in the region, both as to size and denomination. The three coins illustrated three different busts, all wearing the order of the Golden Fleece, and the reverse has the crowned arms of the Grimaldi surrounded by the chain and symbol of the Order of the Golden Fleece. This coinage was intended for local use only as was generally the case with other Spanish dominated cities and provinces.

By 1641 conditions had reached a point where Honoré II began negotiations with Cardinal Richelieu for the eventual deliverance of Monaco from the Spanish and a close alliance with France. On the night of November 17, 1641, the Spanish garrison was overcome and surrendered, and on November 24, Honoré II returned the insignia of the Golden Fleece to the governor of Milan. From this moment Monaco depended upon France for its survival, and a letter from Louis XIII to the Genoese enjoined them henceforth to treat the Prince of Monaco as befits one who is under the protection of his Most Christian Majesty, Louis XIII. This message was not lost upon those concerned, and all further claims by Spain upon the territory ceased.

Of course, Honoré II lost all properties and honors which had been given him by the king of Spain, he was compensated for these losses by the king of France. In 1642 he was made a Knight of the Order of the Holy Ghost, the insignia of which was a dove with outstretched wings painted on a Maltese cross suspended from a sky blue ribbon. That same year he was made Peer of France, Duke of the Valentinois, Marquis of Beaux, and received some additional revenue producing properties in the Auvergne as well as certain stipulated fees from Valence, Vienne and Montélimar. This settlement had been agreed upon in the treaty of Péronne.

In 1643 Louis XIV gave additional benefits to the Prince as well as giving him a letter of patent authorizing the introduction and circulation in France of gold, silver and billon coins made in the Monaco mint. This caused some discontent at other small courts of the kingdom who were not so privileged, and Louis XIV was obliged to reissue his first letter of patent in 1645 and again in 1646 before all resistance to Monaco coins stopped.

The gold coins, as can be seen from the illustrations, closely followed the French patterns, the silver coins featured the Grimaldi shield on the reverse with the bust of Honoré II on the obverse. Considering the number of titles in addition to Prince it is not surprising to find the ampersand used in the legend. The coins of Honoré II rate among the most beautiful ever issued from the Monaco mint, and certainly their execution leaves little to be desired.

The mint, already a busy place during the reign of Honoré II, was expanded during the reign of Louis I (1662-1701). The first issues of Louis I represented a departure from the previous type as can be seen in the illustrations. However, after approximately one year, the design reverted to that of Honoré II. It may have been public resistance to the new money or for purely aesthetic reasons, but the former seems more likely. The mint of Louis I is noteworthy for two reasons: it was the last mint to produce gold coins in Monaco, and it coined foreign money as well as jetons. Gold was not to bear the arms of Monaco again until the reign of Charles III, and these pieces were minted in France; the minting of jetons was done on a contract basis, but the reproduction of foreign coins was purely for trade purposes. This made the money serve a dual role, not only did it pay for African and Far Eastern goods, but it also provided seigneurage for the Prince. Complaints were registered at the Monetary Council in Venice, but apparently no action was taken since none was recorded.

Under the reign of Antoine I, we note a greater variety of coins as well as metals. The busts vary as well as the shield, but not enough to make the coins look entirely different. The year 1720 is recorded as having had the greatest mint output of Antoine's reign. In commerce, the port of Monaco became increasingly important and its favorable situation as well as its protected harbor made it a natural stopping place for ships plying up and down the French and Italian coast. Prince Antoine continued the study of the creation of some type of trade dollar for Africa and the Orient. This study was started by Prince Louis I, but his death prevented the execution of any formulated plans. Antoine also reached no decision which was unfortunate since any country able to produce an acceptable trade dollar would be in the enviable position of being able to sell coins thus collecting seigneurage without having the trouble of getting the coins in circulation.

During the reign of Antoine's successor, Honoré III, we find that greater attention is paid to the making of the dies, and the coins are generally well executed. Coinage, however, was based on home consumption only, and the output was relatively small as compared to that of his predecessors. He also continued the study for a trade dollar, but eventually lost interest in the project and abandoned it. In 1737 the Monaco mint closed its doors, not to reopen for a hundred years.

In 1837 Honoré V took steps to reopen a mint in Monaco as had been done before. This was his privilege, but to coin money for use within the principality only would result in its devaluation since it could not be spent outside, and Honoré V did not realize that the treaty of 1815 had placed him in quite a different position than that of his predecessor who had made the treaty with Louis XIV of France concerning Monegasque coins. He proceeded with his plan for 5 centime, decime and 5 franc pieces, and his "concessionnaires" dumped as many of them as possible in neighbouring cities. At one time so much Monaco copper coinage was in Marseilles that there was a public outcry against its presence. Accusations were made about the mint which produced substandard and fake money and the French government finally intervened and discredited the money and forbade its circulation in France. In all fairness it must be said that the coppers of Monaco were of slightly greater intrinsic value than those of France, but the damage had been done and Honoré V closed the last Monaco mint in 1840. From that time all Monegasque money was coined in the Paris mint with prior approval of the design by the Prince of Monaco. This agreement is in effect to this day.

This short study of the coinage of Monaco is not to be considered as final. It is expected that additional information will be added to supplement what is already here, including illustrations of coins not available now. The additional information will be found in two reference works which are presently unavailable for consultation. Monete Dei Grimaldi by Girolamo Rossi published in Monaco in 1896 and in the Bibliothèque Nationale in Paris, and Numismatique Monegasque by Charles Jolivot which is a series of short articles published in a newspaper during 1895-96, available only in the Monaco library. By the end of the year the writer expects to go to Paris and Monaco for the purpose of consulting these references and making additions or deletions to this study.

Dr. Davenport Receives Farran Zerbe Award

"By the order of the board of governors of the American Numismatic Association, I hereby certify that you have been awarded the Farran Zerbe Memorial Award for your contribution to the American Numismatic Association and numismatics.

"You have contributed to many facets of numismatic knowledge, in particular, your work on European crowns, German talers, and silver dollars of Africa, has contributed a wealth of numismatic information. Your numerous, well written, and deeply researched articles for The Numismatist have served to create a better informed readership.

"You became a member in 1934, a life member in 1936 and have worked for and supported our association since joining. Your tireless efforts could not have gone unrecognized. In 1954-55 you were awarded the Medal of Merit, in 1959 the Twenty-five Year Continuous Membership Award medal and you have been the recipient of the Heath Literary Award, but your efforts are unceasing.

"You have given freely of your time and efforts and have contributed immeasurably to the encouragement, enjoyment and promotion of numismatics and numismatic knowledge," so cited Matt H. Rothert, outgoing president, at the annual banquet of the 76th anniversary convention in Miami.

The Farran Zerbe award is one of the highest recognitions that can be given to a numismatist and Dr. John S. Davenport, author of such standard references as: European Crowns 1700-1800, European Crowns Since 1800 Excluding the German States, European Crowns and Talers Since 1800, and Silver Dollars of Africa, now joins such distinguished recipients as M. Vernon Sheldon, Mrs. Shepard Pond, Joseph Moss, Lewis M. Reagan, J. Hewitt Judd, Richard S. Yeoman, Louis M. Werner, Burton H. Saxton, Glenn B. Smedley, Dr. John F. Lhotka, Jr., Lee F. Hewitt, Elston Bradfield, Jack W. Ogilvie, Leonel Panosh and J. Douglas Ferguson.

Dr. Davenport, a professor at Knox College, Galesburg, Ill., was unable to attend the awards presentation and it was accepted for him by John Jay Pittman, ANA governor and close personal friend.

Applications Now Being Received

Applications for the position of executive director of the American Numismatic Association are now being accepted and any person who believes that he or she is qualified may write to the chairman of the personnel committee, Herbert M. Bergen, 604 N. Harbor Blvd., Fullerton, California 92634, requesting an appropriate application form. Deadline for application is December 5, 1967.

DR. ELISHA KENT KANE

America's Forgotten Hero

Manuel J. Kaplan, DDS ANA-53403

Today the name of Dr. Elisha Kent Kane has been so completely forgotten that there are few people who would be able to tell you who he was or what he did to place him among America's heroes. In fact, on a recent trip to his native city of Philadelphia, I was unable to find any evidence of his having lived or having been buried there after his untimely death at the age of thirty-seven. This is sad, for the recorded story of his deeds and courage was like a flaming comet that lit up the sky of the American scene in the 1850s.

In 1845 Sir John Franklin, an English naval officer, set out to discover a Northwest Passage that would connect Lancaster Sound, which is on the eastern coast of Canada, with the Beaufort Sea, which is on the west. His expedition consisted of two ships, the "Erabus" and the "Terror," with a complement of 192 officers and men. The expedition had enough food and supplies to last them for three years. Although they were last sighted in July of 1845, it wasn't until 1848 that enough concern arose to prompt rescue expeditions.

The first American Arctic expedition was supported by Henry Grinnell, a New York merchant, and included in its complement of officers was Dr. Elisha Kent Kane. Although their search for Sir John Franklin was unsuccessful, Dr. Kane was able to persuade Grinnell to support a second expedition to be headed by himself.

It was the history of this voyage and the story of his exploits, as chronicled in his book ARCTIC EXPLORATIONS: THE SECOND GRINNELL EXPEDITION IN SEARCH OF SIR JOHN FRANKLIN 1853, '54, '55, that captured the imagination of the people of this country. This exciting narrative so enthralled them that his book lay for a decade beside the Bible on almost every parlor table in America. I was able to purchase a copy in one of the local second hand book stores and I had my choice of several volumes. Although his story is over a hundred years old I found it no less exciting today. It is an almost unbelievable account of the courage and the struggle for survival by these men after they had become ice-bound for months. The book recounts the fight against the erosive monotony of the Arctic; of losing fingers and toes to frostbite; of shooting the rats on board the ship with bow and arrow for food; of bleeding and the agony from scurvy. The description of the latter is so classic that it could almost be required reading for the medical or dental student.

Against this background Dr. Kane paints his story of constantly probing northward for Sir John Franklin and his party. Even when they had become ice-bound, Dr. Kane sent out search parties in dog sleds to look for the lost men.

It soon became apparent to several of the more experienced members of the crew that Dr. Kane was looking for more than Sir John Franklin and his party. For decades geographers had believed in the existence of an "Open Sea;" one which was ice-free year round and which was north of the ice shelf. When one of his search parties headed by Morton, one of his crewmen, reported finding open water, Kane was certain he had made an important find and chronicles this in his book on page 306. This body of water was later to be given the name of Kane Basin.

The reader may be interested in retracing the route that Dr. Kane and his party took in their explorations. This was called "The American Route" by later Arctic explorers and was used by Peary in April of 1909 in his successful dash to the North Pole. It traces northward up the Davis Strait through Baffin Bay and west of Thule the present site of our USAF base in Greenland. By continuing north through Smith Sound and taking a slight jog to the east you will then enter Kane Basin.

This expedition was to add immeasurably to our knowledge and to our scientific data of the region. For among the members of the crew were scientists who recorded the fauna and flora, barometric pressures, temperature, currents, and other data obtained in their travels.

This voyage, which took approximately two years resulted in the loss of three lives and the abandonment of their ship, "The Advance," to the grinding ice-pack of the Arctic. Sixteen men were saved only after the agonizing labor of dragging two whale boats and a small cedar dinghy over eighty-one miles of unbroken ice and then sailing thirteen hundred miles to the nearest Danish settlement - a trip that was to take eighty-one days.

When no word was heard from Dr. Kane or his party, concern arose in this country as to the fate of the rescuers of Sir John Franklin. Congress authorized the Navy to send an expedition to search for Dr. Kane. This party, under the command of Lt. Hartstene, intercepted Dr. Kane and his party at DISCO. Upon their return to this country, Dr. Kane plunged into the writing of his book using the log of "The Advance" as the basis for ARCTIC EXPLORATIONS: THE SECOND GRINNELL EXPEDITION IN SEARCH OF SIR JOHN FRANKLIN 1853, '54, '55.

From this log we learn of the conflict that Dr. Kane had with William Godfrey, an East River boatman, one of the members of the crew (it is his medal that is shown in the photograph). According to Dr. Kane's report, Godfrey's desertion when "The Advance" was ice-bound. However, more than likely Godfrey was just seeking the companionship and comfort of the Eskimo women, even though the Eskimo village was nearly eighty miles from the ship.

After the completion of his book, Dr. Kane went to England to meet with Lady Franklin. However, the rigors of the expedition and the work in getting his book written and published took their toll on his all too frail body. Shortly after he had arrived in England, it was suggested that he go to Cuba to regain his health, for the inclement weather in England only aggravated his condition. He arrived in Havana only to succumb to what I have assumed was rheumatic fever on February 17, 1857.

His body was returned to this country via New Orleans and was met by crowds of his grieving countrymen in its travel up the Mississippi River to its final resting place in Philadelphia. It has been claimed that his funeral cortege was even greater than that of Lincoln's, which was to take place some years later. However, in four years the trails, the misery, the anguish that was the result of The War Between The States would sweep his name from the mind of his countrymen and into obscurity.

Dr. Kane was one of those versatile and rare individuals; for, besides being a forceful author and talented artist (he illustrated his book with many of the sketches that he had made on the voyage), he was also a scientist, physician, and respected naval officer; although he was a semi-invalid most of his adult life.

In January 1857 Her Majesty's government authorized and sanctioned the Arctic medal. It seems that Dr. Kane was presented with the medal that is described below almost concurrent with the presentation of the gold medal by the Royal Geographic Society. It is my contention that the Kane Expedition Medal should be considered as being the first type of Arctic medal; prior to the so called first issue as listed by Major L. L. Gordon and Captain H. Taprell in their books on medals.

The Kane Expedition Medal is circular, one and a quarter inches in diameter, struck in silver and gold, and has the name of the recipient engraved on the plain edge.

The obverse has a lovely, young head of Victoria with coronet in bold relief contained within the following legend that encircles it, VICTORIA D:G: BRITANNIARUM F: D:.

The reverse has within the rim the legend AS A TOKEN OF GRATITUDE FOR THEIR GENEROUS SERVICES. This surrounds an oak wreath which contains the rest of the legend THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT TO THE OFFICERS AND MEN ENGAGED IN THE AMERICAN ARCTIC EXPEDITION.

Interestingly enough, an enquiry to the Royal Mint brought forth the response that they had no record of L.C. Wyon having engraved the medal and it was their feeling that the medal had been done as a private commission. This was surprising to learn in view of several references to a variant of this medal which was struck in gold and presented to Dr. Kane. The only difference, besides the metal in which it is struck, is in the phrasing that is on the reverse. It reads as follows: TO ELISHA KENT KANE M.D. OF THE UNITED STATES NAVY COMMANDER OF THE AMERICAN ARCTIC EXPEDITION.

I believe that these medals were struck immediately after the official sanction in order to present them to Dr. Kane on his arrival in England and that the medals listed by Gordon and Taprell were designed and struck later. It is entirely possible that the visit to England by Dr. Kane precipitated the official sanction for an Arctic medal.

An interesting but sad footnote is that although Congress passed a resolution to present Dr. Kane and his crew with a special medal they did not appropriate the necessary funds. As a result, he was never so honored by his own country.

If ever there was a round table of dedicated numismatists chosen to serve the ANA, surely, one chair would have been reserved for S. W. Freeman.

His name, like those of Heath, Zerbe, Jerrems, Duffield, Reagan, will forever be inscribed in the annals of our association, so indelibly written into ANA history that it would be inconceivable to think of one without the other.

Freeman was very much a part of our association - and our association a part of him. His soft Southern tone was heard in many offices in official Washington expounding, promoting, patronizing, advancing, advocating, the cause of the American Numismatic Association. For the senator, the representative, the Treasury official, he was the ANA in the flesh.

The respect, the goodwill, the integrity, the ANA enjoyed in the nation's capitol was in no small measure the responsibility and achievement of S. W. Freeman. He was the ANA's link with official Washington. It was an assignment he relished...it was an assignment he accomplished with great success. Officially he carried the title, chairman of the Washington Educational Committee, but he was far more than just an ambassador to Washington.

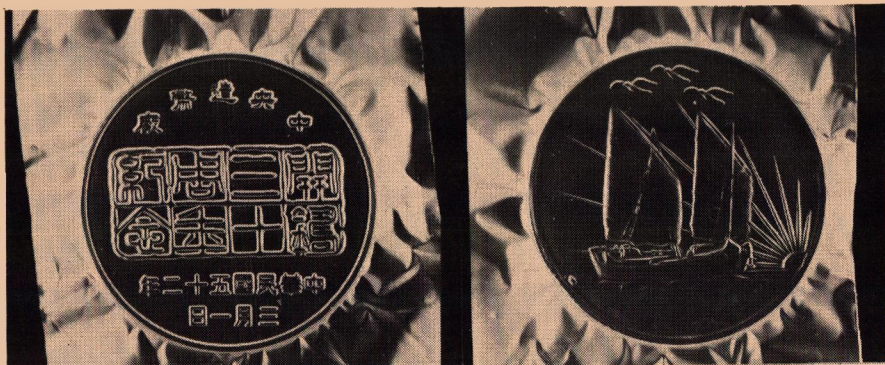

There is not a dealer in the United States, who calls himself a numismatist, that did not know S. W. Freeman for it was through him that their ads appeared in The Numismatist. He was our advertising manager from 1958 to date, helping swell the pages of the official publication to its present size.

His official biography lists him simply as a businessman, Freeman Office Equipment, Newport, Arkansas; a vestryman and senior warden, St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Newport; an assay commissioner, 1962 by appoint of President Kennedy; his school colors included Augusta Military Academy, the University of Virginia and the University of Richmond; but we in the ANA family know better.

His record of service goes back to the very day that he joined the association in 1931 as member 3846; in 1959 he was admitted to life membership, number 366. He was presented his twenty-five year membership medal in 1956, the coveted Medal of Merit in 1963.

Freeman was a writer, too, and a good one. His pen seriously covered a series of studies on two-cent pieces starting in the June 1954 issue of The Numismatist and continuing for several years. His famous warmth and humor was revealed in another series, "There's One in Every Precinct," a satirical spoof that brought rave comments from many readers.

We're going to miss him. The road ahead still looks bright for the ANA, but we are going to find that road a little steeper, a little rougher going without Freeman.

FEATURING FAKES

VIRGIL HANCOCK, ANA 43616

© 1967 by Virgil Hancock

"Unpublished patterns"... be careful of them!

Once in a blue moon is marketed an old collection in which there's a pattern or trial piece which quietly had been struck by some mint official or employee and of which no record now can be found. But many of the "unpublished patterns" which I've seen in the past few years are relatively recently struck or cast designs dreamed up by some artisan with a sharp eye for a quick buck.

These are two such.

One set of photos is of an aluminum-foil pressing of an alleged China silver "pattern" which the seller priced at US$125.00. Instead of being a pattern for a coin, it's only a medal struck in Taipei to commemorate the 30th anniversary of the Central Mint of China, dated "52nd year" (1963).

The other pictured piece is a copper job actually sold as "unpublished pattern"... but the maker of this specimen evidently combined the reverse of a "fine" Mexico minted gold 8 escudos with the obverse of a Santiago, Chile, "AU" 8 escudos (II Fbg 70/29, bearing face of Carols IIII, legend of Fernando VII) dated 1813. Common sense would ask why a pattern for a proposed 1813 Mexico mint coin would be made with the head of Carlos IIII who'd cashed in his chips five years earlier!

Sometimes it's almost impossible to track down whether an offered "pattern" is the real McCoy, or merely some engraver's or some casting expert's brainchild. When in doubt, I pass!

New and Recent Issues

by Ernest Kraus, LM 129

It is the important duty of The Numismatist to record and illustrate new coins. To accomplish this, members in the United States and abroad are invited to submit new issues to Ernst Kraus, Room 939 (include room number in address), 393 Seventh Ave., New York, N. Y. 10001. Coins will be photographed and returned as soon as possible, and a credit line will be given to anyone assisting.

Austria

There are few collectors in the world today who are not familiar with the Maria Theresa taler. It is one of the most popular coins known and, with its 1780 date, continues to be minted and circulated throughout many of the Persian Gulf and some African states.

Recognizing its popularity the Austrian Mint has often made this coin available to collectors and dealers. This year that familiar bust appears on one of the commemoratives that the Austrian government authorizes annually. Collectors desiring information on quantities and procedures for ordering direct might write the Direktion des Osterreichischen Hauptmunzamt, Am Heumarkt 1, Wien (Vienna) III, Austria. Correspond in English, your answer will be the same.

behind, 1717; date in front, 1780; date below, 1967 (commemorating the 250th anniversary of her birth); Latin legend around, M. THERESIA D.G. R. IMP. HU. BO. REG. (By the Grace of God, Empress of the Holy Roman Empire, Queen of Hungary and Bohemia). Reverse: value within a circle of 10 shields of the current Austrian provinces; legend around, REPUBLIK OSTERREICH. Lettered edge. Struck at the mint in Vienna. .800 fine silver, 30mm., 13 gr.

50 schilling, 1967. Silver. Obverse: half-length portrait of Johann Strauss playing a violin; date, 1967, below; legend around, 100 JAHRE DONAU-WALZER (100 years of the Blue Danube Waltze, composed by Strauss. Reverse: similar to above except for value. Lettered edge. Struck at the mint in Vienna. .900 fine silver, 34mm., 20 gr.

India

India is the seventh largest country in the world, the largest democracy in Asia, and with the exception of China, her neighbor, the world's most populated nation. Current coins bear India's national emblem on their obverse. The design is copied from a pillar built by Asoka, an ancient Indian emperor. This issue is no exception.

Panama

The Republic of Panama enjoys a coinage treaty with the United States and that country's latest issue matches the coinage metals used in the United States' new clad metal coins. This latest issue, struck for general circulation, was produced at the U. S. Assay Office at San Francisco and released by the Banco Nacional de Panama on June 22, 1966. The U. S. Mint reports that 1,200,000 coins of each denomination were struck.

1/10th balboa, 1966, Cupro-clad. Obverse: portrait of Balboa to left; floral design each side; value above, UN

Half balboa, 1966. Silver-clad (40%). Similar to above except for size and value. Reeded edge. 30½ mm.

Poland

Poland has long commemorated important events and personages through the medium of commemorative coins. A vivid history, tracing 1000 years of existence, can be found in the study of Polish numismatics. Two new commemoratives simply add chapters to their coin recorded history books. One issue is no more than a repeat of a previous issue except in smaller size, the other tells of a general who first made headlines in Western newspapers as commander of the International Brigade in the Spanish Civil War. Issued on the twentieth anniversary of the death of Gen. Karol Swierczewski, who was killed in 1947 while suppressing an uprising of Ukraine nationalists in South Poland, the coin was placed in circulation in early April. It is 3mm smaller than earlier 10 zloty coins.

Spain

While Poland honors through a coinage issue the man who led the International Brigade in Spain, Spain continues to numismatically honor the man who defeated them. Dictator Francisco Franco, who defeated the Loyalist in the bloody Civil War, 1936-39, and has ruled since that time, has allowed age to catch up to him and his coinage. A new and older portrait of the 69-year old El Caudillo is now used.

50 centimos, 1967. Aluminum-magnesium. Obverse: head of Franco to right; date below, 1966 between two stars representing the mintmarks for Madrid and bear the date of actual issue, 1967; legend around, FRANCISCO FRANCO CAUDILLO DE ESPANA POR LA G. DE DIOS (Francisco Franco, leader of Spain by the Grace of God). Reverse: an ear of grain dividing value, 50 - CTS. Reeded edge. 20mm.

Vatican City

With an official name almost as long as the country is big, Stato della Citta del Vaticano, Vatican City is the smallest independent state in the world. Covering only 108.7 acres, it serves as the spiritual and governmental center of the Roman Catholic Church. Vatican City has been a modern independent sovereign state since the signing of the Treaty of the Lateran in 1929 and with that treaty went the right to coin its own money, a prerogative that it has amply exercised.

1 lira, 1967. Aluminum. Obverse: crowned papal arms, crossed keys behind, dividing A(nno) V (year 5) and the initials G.P. (designer Guiseppe Pirrone); at base, A.D. MCMLXVII; legend around upper portion, PAULUS VI PONT. MAX.. Reverse: cross-sword with crossed keys of St. Peter in center dividing value and Roman date below; legend around, CITTA DEL VATICANO. Plain edge. 17½ mm.

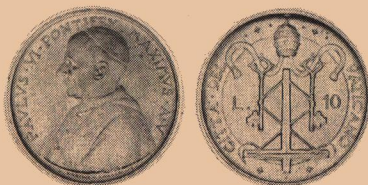

2 lire, 1967. Aluminum. Obverse: similar to above. Reverse: papal crown with ribbons from which two keys hang suspended parallel dividing value in center; below, a cross upside down tied with line in geometrical design to keys above; legend at the sides, CITTA DEL VATICANO. Reeded edge. 18½ mm.

10 lire, 1967. Aluminum. Obverse: portrait to left; legend around, PAULUS VI. PONTIFEX MAXIMUS A.V.; at base, G. PIRRONE MONASSI, INC.. Reverse:

similar to two lire except for value. Plain edge. 23½ mm.

20 lire, 1967. Aluminum-bronze. Obverse: similar to five lire. Reverse: cross-sword in the center; heads of St. Peter and St. Paul to each side; crossed keys and value below; legend around, CITTA DEL VATICANO. Reeded edge. 21½ mm.

100 lire, 1967. Stainless-steel. Obverse: similar to 10 lire. Reverse: St. Peter seated on the papal throne holding keys in his left hand and with his right hand raised; value on sides; initials of designer below; at base, A.D. MCMLXVII; legend around, CITTA DEL VATICANO. Reeded edge. 28mm.

500 lire, 1967. Silver. Obverse: similar to 10 and 100 lire. Reverse: similar to 20 lire except for value. Inscription around in a grooved edge,

IN NOMINE DOMINI (in the name of the Lord). 29mm.

The entire set commemorates the fifth year of the reign of Pope Paul VI.

U. S. Atomic Physicist Portrayed

The Club Francais de la Medaille, the French Mint's counterpart to the Society of Medalists, has issued a 72 mm medal bearing the portrait of J. Robert Oppenheimer on the obverse. The opposite side is a composition suggested by Oppenheimer himself showing the trajectory of electrons in motion, the legend CARITAS surrounds this field and in the center is a physics equation within an atom. Oppenheimer received the 1963 Fermi Award from the Atomic Energy Commission in recognition of his contributions to theoretical physics, to the development of the first atomic bomb, and the peaceful uses of atomic energy. It has been suggested that this award, was in part, an effort to rectify the damage to his reputation and character when he was declared a "security risk" in 1954.

The medal, designed by Charlotte Engels, has been struck in bronze and silver. The address of the Club Francais de la Medaille is the same as that of the Paris Mint: 11 quai de Conti, Paris 6, France.

A.N.A. Progress Report

A National Home and Headquarters Will:

- ▶ Make possible more and better services to A.N.A. members through increased efficiency and consolidation of scattered facilities and personnel;
- ▶ Provide for expected rapid growth and expansion of A.N.A. and its programs;
- ▶ House the nation's largest circulating numismatic library and improve the dissemination of numismatic knowledge and information through its audio-visual program and its publications;
- ▶ Provide for the establishment of a national numismatic museum;
- ▶ Be a symbol of the importance of the collecting and study of money from the dawn of civilization to the present and tomorrow;
- ▶ Afford every member an opportunity to have a tangible part in the A.N.A. for its betterment and the advancement and enjoyment of numismatics on a nationwide scale.

Colorado Springs Progress

The work of the Building Fund and Furnishings Drive is over. Some donations still trickle in, we have the latest listed here, but we are far from finished in Colorado Springs. Here we see Carlisle B. Guy pour over the finish drawings for the museum. We have heard a lot about this gentleman during the course of building the home and headquarters, after all he is the man who designed it. But, how much do we know of him?

A brief biography is in order. He opened his first office in Colorado Springs in 1962, after serving 3½ years in WW II with the Corps of Engineers in Europe. The immediate post war years were experienced with John Gaw Meen in New Mexico. His major projects include Broadmoor International Center, Broadmoor South Hotel, Holly Sugar Bldg., Colorado Springs Police Headquarters and, of course, the ANA headquarters. He'll soon add our museum to this impressive list.

The Token Collector's Page

by Melvin Fuld, ANA 11932

Editor's Note: — The Token Collector's Page returns to The Numismatist after an absence of a number of years, last appearing in the April 1961 edition. Readers are referred to the September 1951 issue, page 953, The Classification of Tokens, by Melvin and George Fuld, for the key to the numbers attributed to the tokens listed on these pages. Newer members may obtain this edition from the library.

Collectors who can supply additional information on any of the tokens, published or unpublished, are asked to write to the author at:

6701 Park Heights Ave., Apt. 1D, Baltimore, Maryland 21215.

BUFFALO, NEW YORK

Obverse: curved to top, CANADIAN TYPE; in center in two lines, FOUR 4-C CEE / WHISKEY; curved at bottom, BUFFALO DISTILLING CO.

Reverse: around, MEMBERSHIP EMBLEM OF THE DONT WORRY CLUB; in field typical symbol of "good luck" pieces with four leaf clover, horseshoe, wish-bone and symbols.

Metal: brass. Size: 20 (31.75mm). Border: no. 4. Edge: no. 1. Issued about 1920. Rarity: 1.

N.Y.-30-33:1-SC-23-Br-20(31.75mm)-Bd.4;Ed.1;R4.

This is just one of a group of distillery pieces. Some collectors will no doubt classify it as a "good luck" token, since in our classification system names take precedent, we must catalogue it as a store card or merchant's token.

The central theme of most good luck pieces is the swastika. "This graphic symbol is to be found in most ancient and primitive cults around the world - in Christian catacombs, in Britain, Ireland, Mycenae and Gascony; among the Etruscans, the Hindus, the Celts and the Germanic peoples; in Central Asia as well as in pre-Columbia America. The implications of the swastika are very wide, for it is a synthesis of two symbols of independent force. The (Greek) cross with arms of equal length and the cross with four arms appearing to rotate in the same direction. The tetraskelion, or swastika with four arms at right angles, is also called the gammadion because it can be formed by joining up four gamma letters...there are in fact two swastikas, the right-handed swastika and the left-handed swavastika." (1).

There are many interpretations of what this symbol stands for, the most general is that it symbolized movement and the power of the sun. It has likewise been suggested that this symbol means the succession of generations and that the hooks on the ends of the arms represent the different stages of life.

The clover leaf and its derivatives stands for the trinitarian and has long been a symbol of good luck.

Deriving from the magical nature of the horse since ancient times is a belief that the horseshoe brings good luck.

The wish-bone is the forked bone formed by the united clavicles of certain birds - the furcula. A bone is a symbol of line as seen in the character of a seed. The wishbone has always been a fulfillment of a wish.

The other symbols on the token are no doubt good luck symbols but this is the only token in the writer's collection that has this set of symbols.

NEWARK, OHIO

Obverse: in three lines, SARGENT / NEWARK / OHIO .

Reverse: in field 5 surrounded by nine stars with CENTS below. In exergue JAS. MURDOCK JR. 165 RACE ST. CINCINNATI, OH.

Metal: brass. Size: 13½ (21mm). Border: no. 5. Edge: no. 1. Issued about 1870. Rarity: 5.

O-140-170.1-SC-18-Br.-13½ (21mm)-B. 5,E.1-R.5.

This piece was executed by Jas. Murdock, Jr., son of Jas. Murdock of 139 West 5th Street, Cincinnati, Ohio. Murdock, Sr., was of the Civil War period and issued a number of Civil War tokens in conjunction with John Stanton and Spencer. The reverse is similar to those struck during the Civil War period with the exception that they had eleven stars instead of nine. Likewise the Civil War tokens did not carry the name of the maker.

It is strange that neither Wright nor Adams listed this piece.

The business that Sargent engaged is unknown to the writer. The piece, itself, is the same size as a U.S. five-cent piece.

ALTOONA, PENNSYLVANIA

Obverse: in seven lines KAUFE DOBBINS' / ELECTRISCHE / SEIFE / DIE / BESTE VON / ALLEN / RUDOLF SCHRÖDER / ALTOONA.

Reverse: CAPITOL AT WASHINGTON in field view of U.S. Capitol.

Metal: white metal. Size: 14(22½ - mm). Border: no. 6. Edge: no. 1. Issued about 1875. Rarity: 6. Adams: Penna no. 1.

PA-10.177.1-SC-18-W.M.-14(22½ mm) -B.6,E.1-R.6.

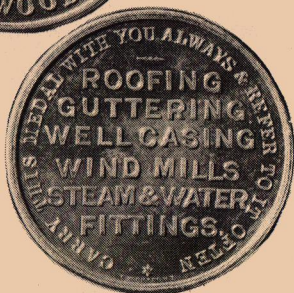

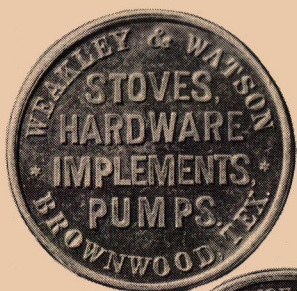

The translation of the obverse reads, Purchase Dobbins Electrical Soap - The Best from Allen Rudolf Schroder, Altoona. This token has always interested the writer because it is in his line of business. We have never been able to determine just what "electrical" soap means. The only explanation that can be advanced is that it must have been a laundry soap with a high ph (alkalinity) to give it sting.

Miller values the token in fair at $2.50 and uncirculated at $5.00. It is felt that a rarity 6 piece could bring a higher value.

BROWNWOOD, TEXAS

This dollar sized token, as well as all the early Texas pieces, are most interesting and tell a real story of the early days. While the issuers of this piece refer to it as a medal, it is really an advertising piece and therefore must be classified as a store card.

It is a very well executed piece by Koch of New York but a little unusual

Obverse: around, WEAKLEY & WATSON * BROWNWOOD, TEX. * ; in field in four lines STOVES, / HARDWARE /

IMPLEMENTS, / PUMPS.

Reverse: around, CARRY THIS MEDAL WITH YOU ALWAYS & REFER TO IT OFTEN * ; in field in six lines ROOFING / GUTTERING / WELLCASING / WIND MILLS / STEAM & WATER / FITTINGS. ; in exergue F. KOCH & CO. N.Y.

Metal: aluminum. Size: 24(38mm). Border: no. 1. Edge: no. 1. Issued about 1890. Rarity: 8.

in that the obverse was punctuated while the reverse was not.

Weakley & Watson must have had an excellent hardware and implements store and probably were one of the first specialty stores rather than a general store.

Adams did not list any Texas pieces therefore Miller did not include them either. Wright, however, listed this piece as 1212.

74th Issue of the Society of Medalists

Ralph J. Menconi, noted American portrait sculptor has designed the 74th issue of the Society of Medalists to honor our founding fathers and especially to commemorate the Declaration of Independence. Thomas Jefferson is portrayed on the obverse with the legends composed from the first sentence of the second paragraph of the Declaration summarizing the purpose of the American Revolution. The reverse is a composite of symbolism depicting the development of this nation from its earliest moment. Seen are the Liberty Bell, the Mayflower, symbols of the British Stamp Act, coffins resulting from the Boston Massacre, a ship boarded during the Boston Tea Party, and Independence Hall where the Declaration was signed. The irregular shape and handmade quality of the medal is supposed to reflect the very early coins and medals of the republic. Struck in bronze, they have a special hand finished patina.

Ninth Edition!

THE GUIDE BOOK OF CANADIAN COINS, PAPER CURRENCY AND TOKENS, 1659-1967, by Somer James. 116 pages. Illustrated. Paper cover, plastic coil binding. Canadian Numismatic Publishing Institute. $2.50.

This popular catalogue and price list covers just about every phase of Canadian numismatics. The covers are colorful, even if a bit cluttered; the paper stock and illustrations are of high quality; the type clear and easily read; and the coil binding makes for convenience in use. Prices are shown in up to seven conditions, presumably the consensus of over 30 contributors, including many well known names in both Canada and the United States.

A feature of special value to novices in Canadian numismatics is the generous amount of historical and general information on the subject. The first 15 pages are devoted to such matter, and there are enlightening comments about specific series throughout the catalog. Not being a specialist in this field, I can only assume that the coverage is "complete" as claimed. However, I am unable to locate one of my favorite obsolete bank notes - perhaps it is one of those covered by the notation "There are others" or "There probably are others" following the listings of several banks. All in all, this is an excellent book on the "money" of Canada which may be found in many coin stores and in some book shops. —Glenn S.

The Other Side

WORLD WAR II AXIS MILITARY CURRENCY by Raymond S. Toy and Bob Meyer. 98 pages. Illustrated. Paper cover. Monitor Offset Printing Co. $2.50.

With the interest in military currency increasing, especially after Toy's last two books, "World War II Military Currency" (1963), and "World War II Allied Military Currency" (1965) there was a need for a book about the military currency of the "other side."

Joining efforts with Bob Meyer, Ray Toy has done a commendable job of collecting, illustrating, cataloguing and evaluating the issues of the Axis powers - Germany, Italy and Japan. For those of you too young to remember Pearl Harbor the book is a trip back in history. The course of the war can be followed through the pages of this catalogue.

Divided into two parts, Germany and Italy in the first section and Japan in part two. Ray Toy handle the first part and Bob Meyer, the latter. And so the war was divided, the war in the West, the war in the Pacific.

The catalogue takes you from the early occupations of Albania to Greece to the Ukraine with the propaganda notes dropped by the Allies thrown in for added interest.

Bob Meyer duplicates the time and careful studies expended by Toy for his part of the book and it too follows the war in the Pacific, from country to country and thrown in for good measure are the propaganda overprints, suspected issues, fakes and forgeries.

Two good parts, two good authors, too good a book to miss. —ECR.

Four In One

THE GUIDE BOOK & CATALOGUE OF BRITISH COMMONWEALTH COINS, 1798-1967, by Jerome Remick and Somer James. 310 pages. Illustrated. Paper cover. Canadian Numismatic Publishing Institute. $4.50.

As indicated on the front cover, this is the binding of four separate books together as one. First is the 116-page, 9th edition of Somer James' Guide Book of Canadian Coins, Currency and Tokens, identical to that book even to a typographical error on page 17. Next is the 6th edition of The Guide Book of Great Britain's Modern Coins 1797-1967, which covers the same material as the previous edition but re-set in smaller type to conserve space. The 2nd edition of The Guide Book of Australia and New Zealand Coins begins on page 180. The fourth section is a listing of the coins of 75 other British Commonwealth countries, including the mintages and values in up to seven conditions. This portion, which covers 99 pages, gives valuable historical information relative to the countries and their money but is devoid of illustrations except a few line drawings necessary to identify varieties of the listed coins. This section has not been published previously.

While it may not satisfy every specialist, certainly this four-in-one book is well worth the modest price of $4.50 to collectors who want basic information on the coins of British countries, including up to date pricing in the standard conditions. While the type used was chosen to conserve space, it and the fine illustrations are on good grade paper, making for easy reading. A two-page index makes it easy to locate any of the 83 issuing countries which are covered. —Glenn S.

Small Size Notes

A GUIDE BOOK OF MODERN UNITED STATES CURRENCY by Neil Shafer. Second edition. 160 pages. Illustrated. Hard cover. Whitman Publishing Co. $1.75.

Covering a field of numismatic collecting which has become increasingly popular the past several years, this second edition was needed to bring prices up to date and add new data. It lists all U.S. paper money issued from 1929 to date and gives the collector valuations in the conditions usually sought. As in the first (1965) edition, the various issues and denominations are identified by the Donlon simplified numbering system, and the comprehensive information from the Bureau of Engraving and Printing records has been retained.

The small section on mis-printed notes, of special interest to this reviewer and quite a few other collectors, has been enlarged somewhat and premium values shown for the major types. More than a few will agree with me that this section of the book deserves more space for greater coverage of the subject. However, the book contains a vast amount of information on our "small-size" notes, and is well worth the price of $1.75 at which it sells in most coin and book shops. —Glenn S.

Ninety-seven Membership Medal Awards at Miami

Highlighting the awards ceremonies of the 76th annual convention in Miami was the presentation of ninety-five twenty-five year silver membership medals. Two additional gold membership medals were announced at the Saturday evening banquet. These two latter medals were awarded to Howard D. Gibbs, ANA 1949, and to Leonard Kusterer, Bridgeport, Connecticut, ANA 1917, for fifty years of continuous and active membership. It is interesting to note that Mr. Kusterer bears the same membership number as the year that he joined, 1917.

For twenty-five years of continuous and active service in the ANA, the following were named recipients of the silver medals:

Rothert Calls Koch Out

Matt H. Rothert, at the Awards Presentation meeting in Miami, announced that the board of governors had asked for, received and accepted the resignation of Jack R. Koch, who has held the position of executive director for the past year.

Koch's resignation was unanimously sought by the board after a number of irregularities were reported. Outgoing president, Matt H. Rothert, has said that a report would be made to the membership following a complete investigation.

Edward C. Rochette, editor of The Numismatist, has been named as acting executive director until the board can pick a replacement for Koch.

Displays Spark Convention Puerto Rican Cops Top

Julio M. Ruiz Laabes of Aguada,

Puerto Rico, won top honors in Class 10, Latin American coins, and with the points thus accumulated took the Howland Wood Memorial plaque back to Puerto Rico with him for winning best-of-show.

Head judge, Art Lovi, Pensacola, Florida, had over 100 numismatists of recognized ability perform the judging tasks at this 76th annual convention. In all, Lovi had invited over 500 numismatic students and scholars to be judges and named another 91 specialists to serve in an advisory capacity in connection with the judging. Lovi noted that this year far fewer question were posed by exhibitors after the judging than ever before.

First place winners included: William P. Rabun, Col. Joseph Moss Award, United States Coins; Henry Gogolin, Amon Carter Award, United States Paper Money; Douglas Wark, Burton Saxton Award, Medals and Orders and Decorations; John A. Wafer, B.P. Wright Award, Tokens; George Wait, D.C. Wismer Award, Obsolete Paper Money Issued in the United States.

Also: Gordon Z. Greene, Edward T. Newell Award, Coins Prior to 1500 A.D.; Jimmie N. Lawrence, R.F. Schermerhorn Award, Foreign Coins After 1500 A.D.; Walter D. Allan, Stuart Mosher Award, Foreign Paper Money; Irving M. Moskovitz, Paul Schilling Award, All Gold Coins; Julio M. Ruiz Laabes, Latin America, all media of exchange; Goldie Wark, Canadian Coins and Currency; and Dottie Dow, General or Specialized.

Kenneth L. Anderson took first in the group C competitive junior exhibits. This category is limited to junior ANA members. He was followed closely by Alan Moskovitz, second; Randy Streeter, third; and Robert M. Powell, fourth.

Five-Cent Sale Is Convention Highlight

The fabulous 1913 Liberty head nickel, once the property of colorful J. V. McDermott, the man most responsible for its fame, easily stole the show

Just before the auction hundreds crammed the auction desk for a quick peek at the "fabulous nickel" anticipating that numismatic history would be made later in the evening session.

Immediately following the sale of the coin, the auction was halted for photographers and well-wishers. Standing at the auction desk are: l. to r., James Kelley; Mrs. J. V. McDermott; and Aubrey Bebee, the happy new owner. In the foreground is Mrs. Kelley, who clerked the sale for her husband.

at the 76th annual convention in Miami. There were more people, more photographers and more tape recorders at this session of the auction than most other activities combined. The auction room was jammed, standing room only for late comers and an air of excitement seldom felt at a coin collectors convention.

When the auction sale reached lot 2241, auctioneer James Kelley of Paramount International Coin Company, who catalogued and conducted the sale, turned to the crowd and said, "Ladies and gentlemen, I think we're approaching something that's going to be remembered in the history of numismatics...it could very likely be a coin that will not come on the market again ... "it is actually the most famous coin, not because it's the rarest, but because of the mystery, the tremendous publicity, both by the late Mr. McDermott, by B. Max Mehl and by all medias. I hope that this will go down in history as one of the outstanding sales in the country."

Charles R. Hoskins, director of the Money Museum, National Bank of Detroit was one of those with a tape recorder. Here, at this point, The Numismatist was able to have transcribed the recording tape. Share with those there a few moments of the excitement of bidding. -

"Ladies and Gentlemen," begins Kelley, "we are going to start the bidding on the 1931 nickel. (loud laughter) You know that would be more rare than the 1913 because they didn't make a '31. It would be even more rare than the '13. We're starting the bidding tonight on the 1913 nickel... I have $38,000 -- can I hear 40,000. (Aubrey Bebee bids)

"I have 40,000 can I get 42. (another collector bids)

"I have 42 here can I get 44. I have 42 here can I get 44. It's here at 42 can I get 44. (Aubrey Bebee raises)

"I have 44 can I get 46. I have 44,000 can I get 46. I have 44,000 can I get 46. 44,000 I have, can I get 46. The count is done at 44,000, can I get 46,000.

"That's my bid, Jim.

"44,000 is your bid can I get 46. 44 can I get 46.

"It will be too late tomorrow to change your mind. To any one interested now's the time to -- because it's the last chance. I have 44,000 can I hear 46,000, can I hear 45,000. I have 44 can I get 45,000. (another dealer enters a bid)

"I have 45,000 now can I get 46. I have 45 you got 46. (Aubrey Bebee again)

"I have now, 7. I have 46 can I get 47. I have 46,000 can I get 47. It's your bid at 46,000, can I get 47. It's at 46 can I get 47. The bid is at $46,000 can I get 47,000. Can I get 46,500. 46,500. That's as low as we go it's 46,500 - 46,500. It's still cheap at 46,500 with $50,000 publicity - 46,500. I have the 46,000 can I get the 500. We're going to start 'em in a minute or two, we don't want to hurry you, we want you to make up your mind. (laughter) Don't be hasty.

"I have 46,000 can I get the 500. 46,000 I'll take 500. Are you all done at 46,000 - $46,000. In a minute now it will be too late. This is the time now to make up your mind. I have $46,000. 46,000.

"I have $46,000 once. 46,000 twice. For the third and last time, I have $46,000. Sold to Mr. Bebee at $46,000. (applause) If you fellows want to have him come up and have his picture taken with it... Aubrey come up and have your... Mr. Bebee...?"

More applause and cheers and then there was, after a slight moment of hesitation a mad rush to the auction table to congratulate all principals, Mr. and Mrs. Bebee, Jim Kelley and Mrs. J. V. McDermott, who had consigned the coin to the auction. Hundreds of photos were taken, two of which are shown here, and then collectors clamored to have their auction catalogue autographed by the principals involved, a unique souvenir of numismatic history in the making. The coin and the check later went on display for the benefit of those who could not cram into the auction rooms.

Help Wanted!

John M. Barry, ANA 42552, writes that he has been a collector of Nevadarama for over 30 years and is at present preparing a catalogue of Nevada numismatic items including trade tokens, store cards, national banknotes, scrip, assay bars and medals, both old and new, and he would appreciate hearing from anyone having such material.

Barry needs the description, including ornaments and artwork, type of metal, denomination, size (in inches or mm) and type of border. Rubbings of tokens would be of great assistance, plus an indication by the owners as to whether or not they would want their name and home town shown in the catalogue as the owners thereof. Barry's address is P.O. Box 2126, Reno, Nevada.

Transition Metal For Dimes and Quarters

Mitchell Sharp, Canadian minister of finance, announced that the government has authorized a special issue of ten cent and twenty-five cent coins to be issued during a short period until it is feasible to put the new nickel coins into circulation.

It was announced on December 23, 1966 that pure nickel had been selected as the best material for Canadian coins in future. The selectors presently used in coin vending machines cannot accept both the outstanding silver coins and the new nickel coins. New selectors are being developed which will accept both, and these are now expected to be available within a few months. When these are installed in vending machines the new nickel coins as well as the existing silver coins can be used in such machines without inconvenience to the public. It is believed that enough of these new selectors will be installed early in 1968 to make it possible to commence to circulate the new nickel coins at that time.

In the meantime the shortage of silver that has rapidly intensified in recent months, and its high cost, makes it advisable in the public interest to economize in its use by producing ten and twenty-five cent coins containing less silver than our present coins, but still suitable for use in the selectors currently used in coin vending machines. The Mint has now developed and tested new ten cent and twenty-five cent coins made of an alloy containing fifty per cent silver and fifty per cent copper. These coins will not be as durable or attractive as the new nickel coins, nor as economical to produce, but will serve the needs of the public adequately for an interim period. When first issued they will be indistinguishable from the present coins but they will not keep their attractive appearance indefinitely.

The silver coins contained in the Centennial numismatic coin sets currently being sold by the Mint will not be affected by the proposed change in the coins issued for circulation.

JAMAICA

Calls For Contest To Name New Currency

The minister of finance and planning of Jamaica announced at a recent press conference that the country's present currency system would be decimalized in September 1969. Four decimal systems have been proposed by the Bank of Jamaica, and shortly the government will decide which system is to be adopted.

The name of the new currency unit and its symbols are to be selected by means of an open competition throughout the country. Preliminary estimates place the cost of conversion at about $5.3 million to private enterprise and $1.4 million to the central government. The minister believes that two years will provide sufficient time in which to familiarize the public with the new decimal system and to prepare for conversion.

For the Junior

Sherrod Taylor has been selected by a blue ribbon panel of numismatic editors as the recipient of the 1967 Lewis M. Reagan Memorial Award for his outstanding research in connection with an article that he has had published in the Whitman Numismatic Journal on Washington quarters. Appearing in the February 1967, (p. 105), Sherrod traced the design of the Washington quarter back to Houdon's bust executed in 1785. He did more research on his article than the average numismatist does in a lifetime of collecting. His research and study tried to recapture for the reader that which has been lost in the passage of time.

His research was in depth, he used not only the materials at hand at his own home town public library but scanned newspapers published during the Washington Bicentennial year, 1932, for additional sources of information. Other youth might take note that reference material is available to them and limited only by the amount of their imagination.

Hailing from Moultrie, Georgia, Sherrod is a junior at the University of Georgia and he has been a member of ANA since March 1966, his number, J-56417. He started collecting about eight years ago and has been writing on coins since 1965. His work has appeared in Whitman Numismatic Journal, Coin Shopper and Voice of the Turtle.

Young Taylor is presently engaged in a research project on the Georgia gold rush and the mint at Dahlonega. His personal collecting interests lie in the field of ancient coins, he is a member of the Ancient Coin Club of America. He also collects foreign and United States type coins.

This month you should meet young Sherrod Taylor of Moultrie, Georgia, winner of the Lewis M. Reagan Memorial Literary Award.

Majoring in history, his ambition is to become a college professor. Besides his academic pursuits and numismatic activities, Sherrod finds time to be an officer in his fraternity (Sigma Phi Epsilon), a member of the student council, and a resident assistant at one of the freshman dormitories on campus. This summer found him working as an orientation leader at the University of Georgia's summer program for incoming freshman. This is the reason that Sherrod could not venture to the Miami ANA convention to receive his award in person.

You other youngsters, take note, gather your research material, pick out a subject and get your papers coming. There's the ANA Junior Literary Award and the Lewis M. Reagan Memorial Literary Award to aim for. Another young numismatist's award is in the making right now. More on that one in a month or so.

GOVERNORS' MEDALS

Two different medals have been issued honoring governors of two different states. The first was the second in a series of inaugural medals honoring Alabama governors. Pictured was Lurleen Wallace that state's first and the nation's third woman governor. She succeeded her husband, George C. Wallace as chief executive and was sworn in on the same historic spot where Jefferson Davis took his oath of office as president of the Confederacy on February 18, 1861. This medal was designed by James Miller Davis of Montgomery and has a diameter of 39mm. It has been struck in the following metals: gold-anodized aluminum, silver-oxidized bronze, oxidized bronze and a limited issue in pure silver serially numbered. Further information can be obtained from the issuer D & S Medals, 212 Guaranty Savings and Life Bldg., Montgomery, Alabama.

The second governor's medal is that of the first governor of Massachusetts, John Hancock. This 32mm piece is struck in nickel-silver and is issued as a souvenir coin with the booklet Massachusetts' Governors by Edward Young. The entire package sells for $1.00. The obverse bears a portrait of John Hancock; the reverse a rendition of the Commonwealth's Old State House. The issuer is Medford Studios, 80 High St., Medford, Mass.

The American Numismatic Association

The American Numismatic Association, an educational and nonprofit organization, is the largest and most active numismatic body in the world. It invites and welcomes to membership all worthy persons eleven years of age or over, who have a sincere interest in numismatics, whether they collect coins, paper money, tokens or medals, whether advanced collectors or only those generally interested in the subject without being collectors. The Association was founded in 1891, and has about 27,000 members from every state in the Union and many foreign countries. It was chartered for fifty years by Act of Congress May 9, 1912; renewed in perpetuity by Act of Congress April 10, 1962 and is a mutual organization for the benefit of its members.

All Association members, except Associate, receive the official publication, The Numismatist, without cost other than their annual dues. Membership applications should be accompanied by $11.00 to cover admittance fee and the first year's dues. Succeeding annual dues are $6.00. Nonmember subscriptions, $7.50 per year or three years for $20.00. Single copy 75¢. For application blanks or other information, write to Executive Director, P. O. Box 2366, Colorado Springs, Colo. 80901.

The Numismatist is an illustrated monthly which has been issued continuously since its founding in 1888, consists of 128 pages or more in each number with subscribers in about sixty countries. Advertising inquiries should be sent to the Advertising Manager. All other matters for possible publication in or concerning The Numismatist are to be forwarded to the Editor. Unsolicited manuscripts, which are sent at the owner's risk, and other correspondence calling for a reply must be accompanied by stamped, self-addressed envelopes. Opinions expressed in articles published in The Numismatist are those of the authors and do not necessarily represent the views of the American Numismatic Association or the Editor.

OFFICERS'
REPORTS

76th
Annual Convention
Miami, Florida

Annual Report of the President 1966-1967

Your Association has had another active and eventful year. When fine people are all working together harmoniously a great deal can be accomplished. That is exactly the story for this past year.

The biggest event was the dedication of our new building on June 10. With a large crowd present, including all Board members, we were thrilled to open our beautiful and functional new building. It is free of all debt. Its purpose is to serve the Numismatists of the present and future. A dream of our Association for 76 years has finally come true.

As reported monthly in the columns of The Numismatist, the Building Fund and Gift and Bequest Committees, under the direction of Board member, Charles M. Johnson, have vigorously continued the fund raising activities during the year and successfully completed the job of getting together over $250,000 to pay in full for our new headquarters building and an additional $40,000 to pay for its furnishings.

The Gift and Bequest Committee has prepared a long-range endowment program which has been approved by your association's Board of Governors and will be placed in operation this fall. Under this program members and friends of our association may make tax-free, lifetime and testamentary gifts of money or coins to our association. The proceeds will be placed in a permanent endowment fund under bank management with the annual income being made available for designated activities of your association, such as the purchase of books for the library, expansion of the audio-visual education program, numismatic educational and club programs, exhibit awards and other special purposes for the advancement and enjoyment of numismatics. This endowment program will play a big part in the future of your association and numismatics.

Your building plans and construction committee, under the direction of Charles M. Johnson, completed plans and specifications for the new headquarters building early in our fiscal year, took bids, let a contract and completed construction of the building early in May. Landscaping, grading and paving of the parking lot and the installation of a security system were also completed during the year.

Our Association's circulating library has continued to grow and serve its patrons. The library committee, chairmaned by Board member Charles M. Johnson, has vigorously pursued a policy of expanding the library through the purchase of "in and out of print" titles for which there is a demand, and the encouragement of gifts of all kinds of numismatic literature.

In addition to the funds used for book purchases from your association's operating budget and gifts, the library received many donations of numismatic literature from the libraries of its members and friends, which have been acknowledged in The Numismatist.

The Lewis M. Reagan Memorial Foundation, Inc. gave $500 to the library to be used for the purchase of numismatic literature for the special Lewis M. Reagan Memorial Collection, which is a part of the library; and announced that a similar gift would be made annually in the future.

In May the library, under the direction of John and Bernie Gabarron, our association's librarians, was moved from Lincoln, Nebraska and placed in operation in the new headquarters in Colorado Springs.

We have continued and intensified our campaign against counterfeits and forgeries.

We have completed a coin identification program by photographing and ownership identification and registration filing system. This service will be a great help to our members if it is used properly.

National Coin Week has grown again. This year, in spite of the decline in the hobby, we received a total of 93 activity reports, one from as far away as Lima, Peru. A presidential proclamation may be in the offing. The National Coin Week Forum at the annual convention was initiated, and for the first time the co-chairmen contacted all of the Governors in the U. S. in regard to Gubernatorial proclamations or similar documents, 32 of which were issued. The initiation of Class J for Junior ANA members was accomplished, and we can expect to retain this category if this year's results are any indication of the future. As a "people to people" program between numismatists and the general public, nothing can replace National Coin Week.

Numismatic exhibits are one of the most important activities for NCW. This year 884 numismatists placed their displays in over 992 locations to further educate the public about our interesting and educational hobby.

Rick and Virginia Bronson, co-chairmen of the National Coin Week 1967 did an excellent job this year. There will be a National Coin Week exhibit and Forum at our convention in Miami.

Jack Ogilvie, chairman of the Numismatic Hall of Fame Committee, makes this report:

Considerable progress was made when members of the Numismatic Hall of Fame Committee met with William Louth, president of Medallic Art Company, during the dedication week end at Colorado Springs. Louth was particularly invited to express his views regarding the perpetual citation device. After examining the location of the Shrine in the headquarters facility, he offered several suggestions and will submit sketches for study by the committee and the ANA board.

Louth also suggested that the committee might pattern its rules and regulations, election procedure, etc., by those of the Hall of Fame for Famous Americans and has procured a book on their procedures for study by the committee.

Further discussions on both the above matters were held later in Los Angeles. A. Kosoff, newly elected member of the committee, added suggestions regarding the award device. All proposals will be carefully considered by the entire committee.

With the 110 dealers selected from 185 applicants for Miami, our bourse headaches have been ably handled by Ray Byrne, member of the Board, who has worked out an excellent new set of Bourse rules and methods of applying them. We heartily recommend that these should be retained and continued in future years.

1966-67 REPORT OF THE B.O.N.I. COMMITTEE

BY JOHN JAY PITTMAN

"The principal accomplishment of the B.O.N.I. Committee (Bureau of Numismatic Identification & Authentication) was the establishment of a self-financing service for photo registration of coins. This service was officially inaugurated on June 10, 1967, with a press release announcing all the details. The project was, for the most part, the work of Committee Member Virgil Hancock and Committee Chairman John Pittman. The B.O.N.I. Committee plans eventually to enlarge the scope of this activity by setting up a coin identification service as well as a coin attribution service.

In line with the scope of the B.O.N.I. Committee work, they were able to help the U. S. Secret Service track down and seize a large quantity of counterfeit 1950-D and 1939-D U. S. five-cent pieces. In doing so, the committee members were helpful in exposing a number of people who were selling these fakes. The committee also aided some of the victims to receive reimbursement for the spurious coins they had unwittingly bought.

Another service of the B.O.N.I. Committee will be evident at the 1967 Miami Beach ANA Convention where there will be a display of counterfeit coins and a discussion of such pieces. Members of the Committee have aided in publicizing counterfeits and have given lectures on these items.

During 1966-67, a monthly article entitled "Featuring Fakes" by Committee Member Virgil Hancock has been published in The Numismatist. These monthly articles have been well received and are of much interest and value to all collectors."

INTERNATIONAL NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION COMMITTEE

BY JOHN JAY PITTMAN

"During 1966-67, as a Committee of One, I worked continuously with the "Committee of Nine" with the result that the Organization of International Numismatists was set up.

The OIN, itself a separate organization, has become a member of the ANA and is known as 'The Organization of International Numismatists, A Section of The American Numismatic Association.' As of June 25th, there were 297 members of OIN, of which 183 are ANA members.

Mutual benefits will be gained by members of both organizations. The OIN has agreed to provide quality articles on international numismatics for The Numismatist, as the OIN and ANA work together for the betterment and expansion of interest in international numismatics. Further evidence of the OIN-ANA cooperation will be obvious at the 1967 Miami Beach ANA Convention when OIN will hold a special meeting with speakers on international numismatics.

On June 23, 1967, I attended at my own expense the Convention of International Numismatics (C.O.I.N.) for the third consecutive year. While there, I attended an open meeting of OIN and represented the ANA, as a liaison Committee of One. During that meeting I answered numerous questions on the ANA's photo registration of coins service, and other questions pertaining to the ANA as it affected OIN."

THE ASHER LEATHERMAN REWARD FUND COMMITTEE

BY ELDRIDGE G. JONES, Co-Chairman

"On October 23, 1964 Asher Leatherman (ANA #4402 and General Chairman of the Philadelphia, Pa. 1941 Convention) was beaten to death during a coin robbery in his home in Doylestown, Pa. His murder — still unsolved — so enraged the members of the Philadelphia area coin clubs that Daniel Lorden started a local reward fund; and later a solicitation campaign was conducted on a national basis.

In March 1966 this fund was merged with the ANA Reward Fund; and named 'The Asher Leatherman Reward Fund.' President Rothert appointed a Committee of Trustees consisting of Daniel Lorden, Arthur Sipe and Eldridge Jones. By June 30, 1966 the fund had increased to $4,232.50.

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1967 the fund has been increased by donations of $205.00 and interest of $177.90 to a current total of $4,615.40. Most fortunately for the safety of our members the Committee has not been called upon to make any disbursals.

Basically the reward fund is to be used for the apprehension of criminals involved in theft of numismatic items from collectors or dealers, who are physically injured or killed during the robbery as was Asher Leatherman."

REPORT OF THE BY-LAWS COMMITTEE

"The By-Laws committee consisting of George D. Hatie, Legal Counsel, John J. Pittman, George M. Todd, Jake B. Sureck and A. Sipe made several recommendations to the Board of Governors for changes in the By-Laws and they were approved. These changes were largely compiled and prepared by our Legal Counsel, George D. Hatie.

1. Article I and Article II were changed to include Junior members from ages eleven to seventeen, in the A.N.A. without voting rights.
2. Changes were made in Article V relative to the election of officers of the A.N.A.
3. Wherever the words Executive Secretary appeared it was changed to read Executive Director in the revised By-Laws of our Association.

These changes were approved by the Board at their Feb. 13th and 14th, 1967 meeting.

ARTHUR SIPE, Chairman"

REPORT OF THE FINANCE AND BUDGET COMMITTEE

"This committee currently consists of Herbert M. Bergen and A. Sipe as well as ex-officio members Wm. Henderson, Treasurer; Matt Rothert, President; and Jack Koch, Executive Director.

The Finance Committee met at the Chicago Convention in August 1966 and submitted a budget prepared by Jack Koch, then acting Executive Secretary, to the Board of Governors which was adopted. This budget was again reviewed at the February Board meeting this year in Colorado Springs and was approved by the Board.

Following the banquet on June 10th of the Southern Colorado Numismatic Assoc. the Budget committee met and will submit a balanced budget for Board approval.

Eldridge Jones served as ex-officio member of this committee during the time he was Treasurer of the Association.

"ARTHUR SIPE, Chairman"

REPORT OF THE NUMISMATIC TERMS STANDARDIZATION COMMITTEE

The Numismatic Terms Standardization Committee consisting of twenty-two members was appointed by President Matt Rothert in 1966.

This committee met twice in Chicago during the ANA 75th anniversary convention; in New York on December 10th at the G.E.N.A. convention and again on April 29th with a portion of the committee meeting in New York at the Metropolitan New York Numismatic convention and the balance of the members meeting at the Central States Numismatic Society convention in Peoria, Illinois.

Groups of numismatic words and phrases were provided by the Coin World press and the Numismatic News for which we are most grateful. Lists of definitions and suggestions were submitted at various times by members of the committee. Many words and phrases were discussed at length.

Definitions for the three basic words were finally agreed on consisting of the words coin, token and medal and these definitions were published in the numismatic media and in The Numismatist in the June 1967 issue; the word proof was also defined. A longer list of words was defined by both groups of the committee on April 29th and plans are to publish this list in the September issue of The Numismatist.

We have had some interesting and challenging meetings. We appreciate all the time given freely and suggestions offered by the members of this important committee. Plans are under way to have a meeting of this committee at the Florida convention.

"ARTHUR SIPE, Chairman."

ORGANIZATIONAL PLANNING COMMITTEE REPORT

"The organizational Planning Committee of which I am co-chairman with President Matt Rothert consisting of these members: Charles M. Johnson, Richard S. Yeoman, Charles R. Hoskins, Herbert M. Bergen, J. Douglas Ferguson and John J. Pittman, met several times during the 1966 Chicago convention of the ANA.

We had considered many candidates for the position of Executive Director in conjunction with Mr. Gardner W. Heidrick, who was retained as our personal agent. Four names were finally recommended to the Board of Governors for their consideration and Jack R. Koch was chosen as the Executive Director of the ANA.

This committee also considered the position of Editor of The Numismatist. After carefully checking several candidates the Board of Governors at the Chicago convention appointed Edward C. Rochette to become Editor of The Numismatist commencing at such time as he is able to take over the editorial duties from the present Editor, Glenn B. Smedley.

This committee is also charged to consider the possibility of employing a third man for full-time duty at our headquarters in Colorado Springs. A job description for this position has been prepared by Jack Koch, our Executive Director, and sent to each member of the committee.

ARTHUR SIPE, Co-Chairman"

MEDALS AND OUTSTANDING SCULPTOR OF YEAR

"The medals committee consisting of Virginia Culver, Rear Adm. Oscar H. Dodson, George M. Todd and A. Sipe at the direction of the Board of Governors prepared sketches, reached a decision as to the obverse and reverse designs and had struck by the Medallic Art Company an inch and one-half silver and bronze medal commemorating the dedication of the ANA's Home and Headquarters Building on June 10th, 1967. These medals were made available for sale following the dedication ceremonies. The original order was sold within an hour and additional medals had to be ordered.

The 75th Anniversary medal which was first sold at the Chicago convention is still available as well as the Club Past President's medals in both silver and bronze.

This committee also recommended and the Board approved the name of an outstanding sculptor of the year for the gold medal award which is being struck by the General Numismatic Corporation.

ARTHUR SIPE, Chairman"

COMMITTEE TO PREPARE A PROPOSAL FOR THE DISTRIBUTION OF THE REMAINING SILVER DOLLARS

"At a special informal meeting of the Board of Governors and others with Kenneth M. Failor, Executive Director of the Joint Commission on the Coinage, a plan was discussed for the distribution of the remaining silver dollars in the U. S. Treasury.

President Matt Rothert appointed a committee consisting of S. W. Freeman, George B. Hatie, Wm. Henderson, Jack R. Koch, Matt Rothert and A. Sipe to meet with Kenneth M. Failor and prepare a proposal to be sent to the above Joint Commission.

This committee met at length with Mr. Failor and it was agreed that the chairman formulate a statement of proposal. This was prepared on June 12th and a copy was made available for each committee member.

Jack Koch, our Executive Director, in collaboration with Charles Hoskins prepared the final proposal for the equitable distribution of the Silver Dollars now held by the Treasury Department and included a History of the A.N.A., the Perpetual Charter of the A.N.A., a silver dollar audit report, the A.N.A. Headquarters floor plan and a proposed mailer.

The final draft of this proposal was mailed to each member of the Joint Commission on the Coinage on June 30th, 1967.

We are most grateful for the helpful assistance extended to us by Kenneth M. Failor.

A recommendation was also made by this committee that the Joint Commission consider seriously the striking of commemorative dollar size coins as a part of the regular coinage of the United States."

ARTHUR SIPE, Chairman

The Washington Educational Committee has been active all year. Some of the actual results were S. J. Resolution 28 - (National Coin Week) which passed the Senate on May 18th, and the repeal of the prohibition against mint marks, H. R. 7476, which passed the House on June 12, and was signed by President Johnson on June 24th. Our work in Washington will continue.

We have several items pending at this time.

Other important committees worked hard during the year but their reports were not received in time to include herewith.

I want to thank each and every one who has contributed to the advancement of the American Numismatic Association this past year.

We must continue this progress in the future. We can - and will - if all our members will work together for the improvement of our mutual hobby. Let there be no self-seeking, no personal glorification - just honest interest and hard work for our common good. With pride in the past we look with confidence to the future.

Thank you sincerely,

MATT ROTHERT, President
American Numismatic Assn.

Report of the Executive Director

The practice of listing the membership by states is continued in this report.

This year we have given the number of individual members and the number of clubs within each state. We did not include the increase or decrease from last year, but this may be obtained by comparing these figures with those published in the October 1966 The Numismatist.

Total Individual Members22,863

Total Number of Clubs 1,234

Total Membership 24,097

The increase or decrease by States during the past year may be determined by comparing these figures with the Executive Secretary's report published on Page 1309 of the 1966 October issue of The Numismatist.

Total figures represent a decrease in total membership of 956 over the period ending June 30, 1966.

Report of Second Vice President

This report will be my final report as Second Vice President in charge of the Club Representative Program. A review of the year ending June 30, 1967 shows that we had 1266 member clubs to start the year, but this declined to 1237 clubs at the end of the year, a net loss of 29 member clubs, or 2.3 percent. During the year 60 new clubs were admitted, but there were 89 clubs who failed to pay dues in 1967 and therefore had to be dropped from membership. This decline is in keeping with a downward trend of individual new members that began in 1965. There are signs that this decline that followed the boom period has been arrested and that the membership will become stabilized and in time resume a healthy rate of growth.

While there has been a slight drop in club membership there is ample evidence that interest in the Club Program is becoming stronger. The large overflow attendance at the Club Representative Breakfast that was held during the convention in Chicago last year is evidence of this. It was the largest and most responsive meeting that has ever been held for Club Representatives. The greatly improved services being offered to clubs by the executive staff is certainly showing results.

Improvement in the official publication, the Club Bulletin, is also apparent since the duties of Editor were taken over by Ed Rochette, Editor of The Numismatist. The Club Program is bound to benefit from this.

In leaving direction of the Club Program to my successor as Second Vice President I wish to thank the many who have assisted and advised me during the past six years, when club membership showed a threefold growth. It has been a pleasure to work with these members and I would ask them to give the same degree of support to the program in the years to follow. Even though we can take pride in the progress that has been made during the past years there is still need for improvement in the program. The strength of ANA will in many ways be measured by the strength of the affiliated member clubs.

HERBERT M. BERGEN
Second Vice President

Report of the Library

The American Numismatic Association wishes to take this opportunity to thank Mr. and Mrs. John Gabarron for 11 years of devoted service as Librarian and Assistant Librarian.

The transfer of the Library was accomplished with a minimum of effort, due to the excellent planning on their part.

We wish to thank the many donors to the Library the past year. Special recognition should be given to the Sidney Publishing Company and the Lewis M. Reagan Foundation for their generous contributions.

The listing of other donors may be found in the Library Report printed monthly in The Numismatist.

Books loaned	4313	Coinage of Siam books sold.....	2
Borrowers	1021	Coins of Japan books sold	1
Numismatists sold	440	Scott's catalogs sold	8
Reprints sold	1313	Scrapbooks sold	37

Indiana	44	Nebraska	18	Virginia	23
Iowa	35	Nevada	15	Washington, D. C..	10
Kansas	12	New Hampshire ..	12

All other states had less than ten. We also had borrowers from thirty-two other countries, including Canada which had twelve borrowers.

Gross receipts from the Library amounted to $3,529.31.

Editor's Report

Not exactly inexperienced when I assumed the editorship of The Numismatist on January 1, 1967, I must still acknowledge the help and cooperation of Glenn B. Smedley, my immediate predecessor. The information and knowledge extended during my month's stay at the Chicago office has proved invaluable.

Naturally, each editor has his own ideas about format and content but first every editor must concern himself with printing cost — especially in this day of the shrinking dollar.

Mechanically there have been far more changes in The Numismatist than most readers realize. We've changed to finer screen reproductions for better and clearer illustrations and composition has switched from hot metal to cold type. Both of these processes will result in substantial savings on the printing cost of the magazine. Savings are already being realized.

Further in the mechanical department, the editorial section of the magazine is being completely laid out in our new facilities in Colorado Springs and the presentation of camera-ready copy to the printers results in even further savings.

Editorially, I am striving for a better balance of articles for the reader and for a wider selection of authors and recognized name personalities. Among the more famous non-collector names that we have had this year are W. B. Yeats, poet laureate of Ireland; Miss Eva Adams, director of the Mint; J. H. James, C. B., deputy master, Royal Mint, London; and under preparation is a feature by Pierre Dehay, director of the Paris mint.

As to format, the changes are being instituted gradually. Perhaps readers have noticed a layout change in the introductory feature each month, a new table of contents, president's page, and calendar of events. In August we printed a fourcolor presentation of the dedication ceremonies of the new home and headquarters in Colorado Springs. This was an experiment made possible through the cooperation of VirDen Mayo of McCormick-Armstrong Company, our printers in Wichita, Kansas.

Again I would like to reiterate that the task would have been much more difficult had it not been for the full cooperation of past editors Elston G. Bradfield and Glenn B. Smedley. My former employer, Chester L. Krause, Numismatic News and Coins magazine; Margo Russell, Coin World; and Dick Hyde, Western Coin Collector, have been most cooperative in furnishing photographs, the use of their reference facilities and background material. Within the ANA family I must extend credit and thanks to S. W. Freeman, advertising manager, and to all officers of the board for their help, understanding, and observance of deadlines. And finally, a special thanks to VirDen Mayo of McCormick-Armstrong.

Advertising Manager's Report

Advertising Revenue from The Numismatist for the year ending July 30, 1967, was $65,969.19.

This figure represents cash received for advertising since the Association is on a cash basis and not on an accrual type accounting.

The Board of Governors voted in February at the interim meeting to transfer the Accounting Division of the advertising to the Headquarters' facilities in Colorado Springs. This was part of the overall plan to consolidate all activities of the Association in one location.

The policy of the Advertising Manager is to continue to advertise quality merchandise by reputable dealers. This policy has enabled The Numismatist to maintain a balanced advertising ratio to editorial material even though the overall coin market is not as strong as in the past few years.

Complaints against advertisers in The Numismatist continue to be few and minor in nature.

Advertising Manager

Report of the Treasurer

In mid-February of this year, I assumed the duties of Treasurer from my very able predecessor, Eldridge G. Jones. Due to the wonderful cooperation received from Eldridge, the transition was made with a minimum of difficulty.

It has been my policy for the time being to utilize the same general format in making monthly reports to the A.N.A. Board. In rendering future reports of total assets of the A.N.A., the value of our new Home and Headquarters will be included. A straight-line depreciation schedule will be adhered to, predicated on a twenty-five year depreciation schedule. This schedule was developed by Main Lafrentz and Co., Certified Public Accountants of Denver, Colorado, official auditors for the American Numismatic Association.

The largest expenditures during the past year were in connection with our new Home and Headquarters Building. As of the date of this report (July 10, 1967), a total of $257,841.78 has been expended as follows:

Building — structural, architectural, contracting, etc.	$222,214.50
Mechanical Equipment — calculator, typewriter, etc.	2,803.39
Furnishings — (Interior) — Furniture, drapes, cabinets, etc.	26,949.01
Exterior Finishing — sod for lawn, sprinkler system, paving, etc.	5,874.88

The final payment for construction in the amount of $24,033.10 due Hayes Construction Company has not yet been made, and will not be made until all appropriate lien waivers have been received. When this payment is made, our total investment will be $281,874.88. This total does not reflect the future cost for display cases and other furnishings to adequately equip the Museum area.

Home and Headquarters' Trust Funds, as well as surplus operating funds were kept fully invested during the year. These investments consisted of Savings Accounts, Government Bonds, U. S. Treasury Bills and Certificates of Deposit. Total interest earned during the year was $10,385.32, received from the following investment funds: Home and Headquarters, $6,937.43; Trust Funds, $539.27, and Operating Funds, $2,908.62.

Mr. Jones during his tenure as Treasurer prepared 429 checks to pay our operating expenses, and your new Treasurer issued 268 checks. Much of your new Treasurer's work has been facilitated by the able cooperation of our bookkeeper, Ruthann Brettell.

A detailed analysis of our fiscal operations has been omitted in view of the annual report to be submitted by our auditing firm. Very shortly all bank funds of the A.N.A. will be deposited within local banks to facilitate better financial control. In addition, due to a local condition, higher rates can be obtained if invested in Colorado Springs.

If several proposed programs mature during the coming year, your A.N.A.'s fiscal affairs will be greatly enhanced. In addition, the duties and responsibilities of your Treasurer will be increased, but all for the benefit of our Association specifically, and Numismatics in general.

WILLIAM C. HENDERSON
Treasurer

Historian's Report

June 10, 1967 will go down as the greatest date in A.N.A. history, for it marked the formal dedication of its beautiful headquarters in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

After seventy-six years of waiting, this milestone launched a new era. An era of co-ordinated efforts between its officers and a full-time staff. An era of combined action in the building of its numerous programs among which are its educational and scientific projects, its museum and its historical archives.

It is the last mentioned that is of profound interest to the historian. Aided by numerous others, he began the task of initiating this particular project quite some months ago. Divided into several categories, one will contain A.N.A. memorabilia and another medals, tokens and convention badges commemorating A.N.A. events. A report on memorabilia appeared in the July Numismatist. Another, on convention badges, appears in a later edition. Progress to date is disclosed.

Another section will exhibit the beautiful leather bound albums containing biographies, photographs and historical data about all A.N.A. Presidents; prominent and distinguished members and officials; as well as rosters of Honorary members, various award recipients and donors to the building fund. This exhibit will constitute, literally, a "Who Was and Who's Who" in the Association, and is not to be confused with the Shrine of the Numismatic Hall of Fame. The last named will be world wide in scope.

Very closely linked with the historical albums is the photographic library. It consists of convention and event photographs, portraits of past and present officials and personalities of the Association. Photos of numerous V.I.P.s are still required to augment this department.

Since May, packets of historical items have arrived at the new facility from many sections of the continent. More will follow, but these archives will never be completed. It is the historian's desire to assist our staff in making this historical exhibit one of the most outstanding attractions at our new headquarters.

JACK W. OGILVIE, Historian

Report of the Curator of Medals

In May, 1967, when the American Numismatic Association headquarters building was completed, the Curator of Medals shipped the A.N.A. medal collection to the Executive Director.

The medal collection had been housed at the Money Museum of National Bank of Detroit since 1961, when R. Adm. O. H. Dodson was appointed Curator of Medals. During those six years the collection grew from approximately 200 pieces to about 650 medals and tokens dating from before 1500 A.D. and representing many nations throughout the world.

During fiscal 1967, 75 medals and tokens were added to the collection through purchases and donations.

A donation by Lee F. Hewitt, publisher of Numismatic Scrapbook Magazine, received in the fall of 1966, is of special significance. Mr. Hewitt's gift consists of twenty-two A.N.A. convention badges issued between 1933 and 1966. He donated this series as the A.N.A. Historian and the Curator of Medals jointly endeavored to complete the collection of convention badges for display at the headquarters building. Mr. Hewitt's generous donation brought this collection much nearer to completion.

The 1911 and 1913 A.N.A. Convention badges were acquired at auction in October, 1966. The National Commemorative Society and Capital Medals, Inc. continued to donate their respective medal series as they were issued. In addition, the Societe Commemorative des Femmes Celebres, founded earlier this year, is donating specimens of its medallic issues to the Association's medal collection.

In the past year other donations have been received from Mrs. Leander McCormick-Goodhart, Mr. Herman L. Boraker, Mr. N. Neil Harris, Mr. Alex P. Kaiser, Mr. Jesse Schlegel, the Canadian "COTY" Club, and Mr. Paul S. Seitz.

In December, 1966, the Executive Director discontinued forwarding to the Curator of Medals medal donations received at the A.N.A. headquarters. This step, taken because such donations would soon have to be shipped back to the headquarters, precludes the Curator of Medals from preparing a complete medal collection inventory as an appendix to this report.

When the medal collection was shipped to the A.N.A. headquarters, all pieces were accounted for.

Respectfully submitted,
CHARLES R. HOSKINS
A.N.A. Curator of Medals

Report of the Curator

During the Fiscal Year 1966-1967, the Curator received a total of 683 items for the American Numismatic Association's collections.

Of this number 343 coins were purchased while 340 pieces were donated. The Association is most grateful to the following individuals and organizations for their contributions:

Dr. John R. Crawford
Mr. Peter Franquet
Mr. Luis Gianelloni
Mr. Harold E. Hibler
Mr. H. Hildebrandt

Mr. Ernst Kraus
Mr. Rene Negleman
Colonel Rafael Ordonez Pumarino
Mr. Valere Wyckaert
Stack's, New York City

It should be noted that Mr. Hibler added another sizable group of so-called dollars to the Association's collections. This donation consisting of 136 pieces now brings the total up to 273 different issues or more than one-third of all those listed in the well-known reference authored by him in cooperation with C. V. Kappen (Harold E. Hibler and Charles V. Kappen, So-Called Dollars. New York, 1963). We hope that this will inspire other friends of the American Numismatic Association's Museum to contribute specialized collections to our holdings. For the exhibits as such, it will be necessary, of course, to work toward the addition of pieces typifying general historical and artistic developments. On the other hand, however, the availability of authoritative collections as well as an adequate research library should lead to the establishment of a true Center of Numismatic Studies at our Headquarters. In fact, as I have tried to emphasize on other occasions, the development of this and of other regional research centers is essential in order to achieve real progress in our field of endeavor.

In view of its transfer to Colorado Springs, we started in February to dismantle the Moritz Wormser Memorial Loan Exhibit at the Smithsonian's Museum of History and Technology, situated on Constitution Avenue in Washington, D. C. — A documented history of the development of this exhibit may be found under the title "Moritz Wormser Memorial Exhibit" in the October 1966 issue of The Numismatist, p. 1278-1280, with illustrations. — The coins were placed in the original individual envelopes and arranged according to the yearly accession groups. This was extremely tedious and time consuming since the exhibits were set up of course, according to geographical criteria rather than by accessions. The rearrangement was, however, required for control purposes. We wish to express our sincere appreciation to Mr. Carl H. Jaeschke of the Smithsonian's staff who dedicated two months of intensive work to the rearrangement, control, and preparation for shipment of the collection.

In May the coins were shipped to the Executive Director, Jack R. Koch. For statistical purposes it should be mentioned that c. 2,056 pieces were assembled during the period from 1927 to 1956, and 1,688 specimens during the decade 1956-1966. As shown in this report, 683 specimens were added during the last year bringing the total amount up to 4,427 pieces.

While we discontinued with sincere regrets the Moritz Wormser Loan Display on view at the Smithsonian since 1928, we had at the same time a keen sense of satisfaction that this change signified the beginning of a new era of accomplishments and progress.

With the recent establishment of our Headquarters in Colorado Springs and the move of the collections to our new Museum, the requirement arises for the appointment of the necessary museum staff. My own activity thus comes to an end.

Since I was first appointed Curator in 1960, I have found the work in the service of the American Numismatic Association a real pleasure, due largely to the fraternal spirit germane to its official family and I appreciate the help they so often have given me. There are new challenges laying ahead of us as we strive to fulfill our mission as the National Numismatic Organization, and I shall always be ready to collaborate and assist in any way I can.

Report of the Chairman of the Audio-Visual Education Committee

The Audio-Visual Education Committee is pleased to report a very busy and interesting year. The number of visual education programs presented was 1087, a greater number than any previous year and topping last year by 72 showings. This continued extensive use of visual education material can be attributed principally to the fact that even more new copies of the slides are now available to permit immediate scheduling of the programs when requests are received. (Approximately 1200 duplicates of slides were made during the past year.) The Audio-Visual Education Committee is pleased that so many ANA clubs take advantage of this service which we believe is one of the most important ways the ANA can be of assistance to its members, through its member clubs.

The most popular programs, listed by number of showings, were

	Showings
16 mm. Film "A Trip Through the Denver Mint"	120
Slide Set #17 "Coins with Special Significance"	77
16 mm. Film "Money Minters of Canada"	75
Slide Set #1 "Coins of Colonial America"	68
Slide Set #2 "Types of Commemorative Half Dollars"	66
Slide Set #3A "U. S. Copper Coin Types"	64
Slide Set #4A "U. S. Types, Quarters to Silver Dollars"	63

About three-fourths of the total showings were on U. S. coins and paper money. ANA clubs in all states except Delaware and South Carolina borrowed slide sets or movies during the year, as well as Canada and overseas military ANA coin clubs. States borrowing audio-visual education materials most frequently were, in order, New York, California, Michigan, Illinois, Ohio, Pennsylvania.

The above figures do not reflect all the showings of ANA audio-visual education material in Southern California and Texas, since ANA clubs in these areas could borrow slide sets from the regional ANA organizations, the Numismatic Association of Southern California and the Texas Numismatic Association. During the ANA fiscal year, 1965-66, these two regional organizations requested and received ANA Board permission to duplicate at their expense our 35 mm. slide sets for their organizations. (These slide sets are to be used only by ANA member clubs of these two regional organizations.) The N.A.S.C. duplicated the entire slide program series and the T.N.A. duplicated eleven sets.

These figures do not include the showings of the ANA slides on permanent loan to the Bank of America in Los Angeles, California. Cyrus H. Phillips, ANA member #10100, of the Bank of America, made use of these colored slides to accompany his lecture on "The Historical Background of American Coinage." He made the presentation to the following groups:

	Showings	Actual Audience
Individual Schools including
Elementary and Junior High	16	4574
Individual Service Clubs	20	3961
Total		8535

Mr. Phillips reports that, on behalf of the Bank of America, he wishes "to again thank the ANA for their cooperation and valuable assistance rendered in connection with the program." The ANA is also indebted to Mr. Phillips and the Bank of America for their part in helping educate the public regarding our American coinage and perhaps promote a lasting interest in numismatics. The program was discontinued by the Bank of America on March 31, 1967, after having been sponsored for 12 years. During this time, the program was presented before approximately 200,000 people.

In 1967, Slide Set # 31, "Canadian Colonial Coins and Tokens," consisting of 38 colored slides with lecture notes and sound tape, was completed. The lecture notes were researched and written by ANA member Robert Willey of Espanola, Ontario, Canada, and edited by Committee Member John Dunn. Most of the photographs were made by Committee Member Maxwell Brail of Jackson, Michigan. The coins photographed came from the collections of Robert Willey, the Bank of Canada, and Committee Chairman John Jay Pittman.

Among the new slide sets currently being developed are: "International Trade Coins," "The Easy Way to Read Chinese Coins," and "Mexican Revolutionary Coins." Slide Set #6, "Private or Territorial Gold Coins," has been entirely re-photographed, using specimens from three of the finest collections of this series in the U.S.A. Since so many superb specimens were available for photographing, enough different slides have been prepared to provide at least four and possibly five different sets on Private or Territorial Gold Coins. Lecture notes to accompany these slides are now being written. A slide series on Texas Currency is being planned.

The Committee has been at work during the past year making plans for thirty-two half hour Educational TV programs, to be offered in two series of sixteen programs each. The programs will be on a variety of numismatic subjects, U. S. and international, and will be available on educational TV stations throughout the United States. They will bring the ANA and our hobby into millions of homes.

This report gives your Audio-Visual Education Committee Chairman an opportunity to thank all the members of the committee, the Executive Director, and his staff for their help and cooperation. The work of committee members Ed and Mrs. Peggy Borgolte, in making duplicate slides, was of great value. Thanks are also due to committee member John Dunn for his work in editing new slide series lectures and making sound tapes; to committee member Maxwell Brail for photographing the coins; and to Robert Willey for writing the lecture and providing the majority of the coins for the slide set on Canadian Colonial Coins and Tokens. Again we thank the Sidney Printing and Publishing Company for making money available for the support of the ANA Audio-Visual Education program.

The committee hopes that this report will encourage members of ANA clubs, which have never borrowed slide sets or movie films, to make use of this valuable service and aid to club programs. The slide sets and the two 16 mm. movie films are both educational and entertaining. They are available at no cost to ANA member clubs except slight shipping charges. The listing of over 30 slide sets is available from the ANA Home and Headquarters, Box 2366, Colorado Springs, Colorado 80901.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN JAY PITTMAN, Chairman

Report of the Certified Public Accountants

To the Board of Governors
American Numismatic Association

We have examined the following financial statements of the American Numismatic Association:

All Funds

Statement of Assets and Fund Balances (Cash Basis), as of June 30, 1967 Exhibit A Statement of Cash Revenues and Expenditures, year ended June 30, 1967 Exhibit B

Operating Fund

Schedule of Cash Expenditures Exhibit C

Trust Fund

Statement of Changes in Individual Trust Funds, year ended June 30, 1967 Exhibit D

Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The accounting records of the American Numismatic Association are maintained and the financial statements are prepared on the cash receipts and disbursements basis. Under this method, dues, subscriptions, advertising and other income items are recorded as revenue when received, regardless of the period to which they apply. Similarly, expenses are recorded on the books when paid, regardless of the period to which they apply. As a result of this method of accounting, liabilities incurred for accrued expenses and unearned income arising from prepaid dues, subscriptions and advertising are not recorded on the books.

Capital expenditures for equipment and additions to the coin collection are not recorded as assets. Expenditures for the Home and Headquarters building have been recorded as an asset in the Building Fund, as explained in Note 4.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly the recorded assets and fund balances of the American Numismatic Association at June 30, 1967, the recorded cash revenues and expenditures and changes in individual trust funds for the year then ended, on the basis described in the preceding paragraphs, which basis is consistent with that of the preceding year.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

JUNE 30, 1967

1. Accounting principles:

The statement of assets and fund balances was prepared on a cash basis and consequently does not show liabilities incurred for accrued expenses or deferred income resulting from prepayment of dues and advertising.

The effect of recording these items, if the accounting records were maintained on the accrual basis, is compiled below.

	Operating Fund	Building Fund	Trust Fund
Liabilities — accrued expenses	$ 20,551.77	$ 31,494.86
Deferred income:
Prepaid advertising income	2,248.90
Prepaid dues (exclusive of life memberships)	72,860.97
Fund equity	26,656.64	228,230.71	$9,150.32
Total fund balances	$122,318.28	$259,725.57	$9,150.32

The accompanying notes are an integral part of these financial statements.

2. Building fund contributions:

The value of coins donated to the Building Fund has not been included in receipts for the year ended June 30, 1967, in accordance with the cash receipts and disbursements method of accounting utilized by the American Numismatic Association, which recognizes receipts at the time they are realized in cash.

Mr. Joseph M. Segel, President of General Numismatics Corporation, donated 1,000 shares of General Numismatics stock to the American Numismatic Association in December 1964. During May 1967, 400 shares of this stock were sold at a total price of $14,805 in order to complete the Home and Headquarters building project. An additional 100 shares were sold at the same time, for $3,184.87, the proceeds of which are to be used to establish a special trust fund from which an award, entitled the "Numismatic Art Award" of $300 a year will be paid to the outstanding medallic sculpturer, as determined by the American Numismatic Association.

The proceeds obtained from the disposition of the General Numismatics Corporation stock have not been received as of June 30, 1967, and hence are not included in receipts for the year then ended.

3. Building Fund:

The Building Fund was supplemented by the transfer, from the Operating Fund, of funds amounting to $16,551. Made in three parts, the first transfer of 10% of the dues and admittance fees was made on January 12, 1965, in the amount of $9,988. The remainder was made in two installments: $6,097 on May 7, 1965, and $466 on June 30, 1965. The financial statement of cash revenues and expenses for the year ending June 30, 1965, carries this total as a transfer to the building fund. These funds were returned to the Operating Fund in June 1967, and is reflected as a special item on the June 30, 1967, financial statements. (This report revises item 3, page 20, as published in the 1966-1967 Officers' Report and presented at the 76th annual convention in Miami.)

4. Home and Headquarters building:

The Home and Headquarters building located in Colorado Springs, Colorado was completed during May 1967. Total costs accumulated through June 30, 1967 were $257,841.78. This figure is detailed as follows:

Architect and contractor fees plus all structural building components	$222,214.50
Interior furnishings and equipment	26,949.01
Lawn sodding, sprinkler system and other exterior finishing	5,874.88
Mechanical equipment	2,803.39
	$257,841.78

The costs accumulated in the completion of this building have been capitalized in the Building Fund. This fund will be perpetually maintained as a holding fund through which future donations and building expenditures of a capital nature will be recorded. Building fund "cash expenditures" per Exhibit B net to zero as the result of this capitalization. Commencing with the fiscal year ended June 30, 1968, the building and its components will be depreciated over a 25-year life utilizing the straight line method. The effect of this procedure will be to expense the building over its reasonably useful life as opposed to expensing it entirely within the fiscal year ended June 30, 1967.

The land on which the building is located is leased from The Colorado College for a rental of $1 per year for 99 years, terminating on December 31, 2064. This lease may be extended for an additional 99 years on the same terms and conditions as exist in the present lease. Property taxes, if any, on this land are to be paid by the Association.

Blue Book '68

This year, the silver anniversary of Whitman's authoritative BLUE BOOK, we mark the occasion by bringing out the 25th edition with distinctive, silver-accented cover, with contents carefully restudied and greatly revised.

Otherwise known as the HANDBOOK OF UNITED STATES COINS by R. S. Yeoman, this book, as most collectors know, tells you the average prices dealers pay for your coins.

Every effort has been made by Mr. Yeoman and his panel of coin authorities to make this the most informative, up-to-date and useful edition of the entire series. New information, new illustrations, extensive revaluations. Again, the BLUE BOOK is a must for all collectors.

Now at your dealer's and other stores. $1.00. No. 9050

REPLACEMENT ★ NOTES OF U. S. PAPER CURRENCY

The September Numismatist featured an article on replacement or "star" notes, U. S. Paper Currency. Illustrations showed types, large and small size notes. Collector-interest in replacements is at fever-heat. These "stars" are several times rarer than regular notes. Listed below are items from my personal collection. Check them carefully. Each is BU unless otherwise described.

Star notes on small size are too common to list. Do have a few.

Of the notes listed above there is only one of a kind. First checks will get them. Buyers of these "stars" must be happy with their purchases, else prices paid will be promptly refunded.

ARGENTEUS

The first and unique attempt to establish an International Coinage! Write for a free booklet!

The Argenteus is coined of pure silver in Munich, a capital of art in Europe. The reverse is always the same and bears a six-pointed Cross of lilies as a sign of world-unity. The inscription is in Latin and means: For the Prosperity of the World.

Shown in original size! Brilliant proof! Silver content 999/1000, as pure as possible!

The small Argenteus (Single) 15 gr. 4.00
 The big Argenteus (Triple) 45 gr. 8.00

CASH ADVANCE

THAT'S RIGHT ! ! ! ! We will advance a percentage of the fair retail value of your collection immediately upon receipt. We will then sell your collection at one of our forthcoming auction sales and you will receive your final settlement within 30 days after the sale. Our commission rates are always reasonable.

During the time that your coins are in our possession they are stored in our protected and insured vaults. When you receive your advance check, if for any reason you are not satisfied with the amount of the check, just return it and your coins will be returned postpaid.

In many cases our advance will be almost equal to others offer of outright purchase.

If you are not currently on our mailing list, just drop us a post-card with your full name and address and we will place your name on our catalogue mailing list.

REMEMBER — It is not too late to have your collection included in our next outstanding auction sale.

OUR SALES ARE USUALLY HELD IN THE PARKER HOUSE

We are always in need of desirable numismatic material and will be happy to travel anywhere in the world to acquire it — either for auction or for outright purchase provided the value of the material warrants it.

NO COLLECTION IS TOO LARGE — We will furnish bank references upon request.

With great pride, we announce the issuance of an outstanding artistic work of medallic art. No photograph or reproductive technique can capture the richness and simplicity of this beautiful medallion. The "Four Assassinated Presidents" medal is one of the finest artistic works offered by Presidential Art Medals. This striking historical masterpiece must be seen to be appreciated. It is unusual to find four full view delicately detailed portraits in sculptured high relief on a single large medal. The obverse portrays an exceptional likeness of Lincoln, Kennedy, Garfield and McKinley with their signatures incised below the portraits. The reverse depicts the flag of the United States and the Presidential flag with the following inscription in relief: "PRESIDENTS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA WHO GAVE THEIR LIVES IN DEVOTIONAL SERVICE TO THIS NATION." Dates of each President and the Presidential Seal is in raised relief.

The FOUR ASSASSINATED PRESIDENTS MEDAL is issued as follows:

1,000 pieces serially numbered from 1-1000 Silver (.999+) 2 $\frac{3}{4}$ " dia.	\$39.50 ea.
Unnumbered pieces Antique Bronze 2 $\frac{3}{4}$ " dia.	\$ 5.00 ea.
Descriptive pamphlet and metal desk stand with each medal

PLEASE NOTE: Due to an extremely limited issue of Silver medals, orders are accepted contingent to prior sale. Special plastic holders with gold lettering are available at $4.00 each.

RARE HAWAIIAN COINS AT DISCOUNT PRICES

Low mintage. Listed page 248 of the Red Book. Many melted, especially dollars of which over 400,000 were melted, according to the records at San Francisco. Many additional coins of each denomination were lost to the sea during a revolt by the people against the government in 1893. Few were left. In fact — during my visit to Hawaii I searched the Islands to locate Hawaiian coins and discovered to my amazement that few people living on the Islands even knew that these coins existed. Most inhabitants were amazed when I showed them coins struck by the U. S. Mint for circulation in Hawaii. They are not only no longer in circulation, but few Hawaiians realize that at one time they had their own coinage. Check your Red Book — Excellent investment potential per dollar invested.

Flash! IT IS NOW OFFICIAL — THE U. S. MINT WILL PRODUCE THE 1967 PANAMA PROOF SETS

THE REPUBLIC OF PANAMA hereby announces that it will now accept orders for 1967 Panama Proof Sets. Each set will consist of one Balboa, one Half-Balboa, one Quarter Balboa, one Tenth Balboa, one Five Centesimos, and one Centesimo. The Crown size One Balboa will be 90% silver content. The alloy for the other coins will be the same as that of U. S. coins in comparable denominations.

THE 1967 PANAMA PROOF SETS WILL BE STRUCK AT THE U. S. MINT. Each set will be attractively packaged to U. S. Mint Standards.

THE QUANTITY TO BE STRUCK will be equal to the number of orders received. This means there will be no leftover quantity hanging over the market. This also means that the 1967 sets will become non-available (the same as 1966 sets, except from original purchasers who may wish to sell) after the acceptance of orders has been discontinued. THE PRICE OF $15.00 PER SET will be maintained to all. There are no secret discounts or other reductions.

THE REPUBLIC OF PANAMA joins the United States and Canada as the third country in the Western Hemisphere to issue proof sets on a yearly basis. We view the opportunity to order the early Panama Proof Sets as being similar to ordering the new U. S. Proof Sets back in 1936, or the Canadian Prooflike Sets when they were generally available in 1954.

1966 PANAMA PROOF SETS ARE NOW HISTORY. All 1966 Panama Proof Sets were delivered to the original purchasers in May. The quantity minted was limited to 12,701 sets which represents the quantity ordered by the purchasers on and before July 31, 1966. There was no surplus issued.

WHAT OTHER INVESTMENTS IN COINS HAVE DONE SO WELL DURING THE PAST YEAR? If you were one of the lucky purchasers of the 1966 Panama Proof Sets, you are now enjoying one of the best investments offered last year! Collectors and dealers are clamoring to obtain the 1966 Panama Proof Sets from their original purchasers. The strong demand for these sets has created the opportunity for handsome profits for the original purchasers.

We believe the 1967 Panama Proof Sets will offer an outstanding investment opportunity. PLACE YOUR ORDER FOR THE 1967 PANAMA PROOF SETS WHILE THEY ARE STILL AVAILABLE AT ORIGINAL MINT ISSUE PRICES.

DEADLINE OCTOBER 31, 1967

The Republic of Panama has announced an early deadline of October 31, 1967, for receiving orders for 1967 Panama Proof Sets. This early deadline is to facilitate the production planning at the U. S. Mint. EARLY DELIVERY DATE EXPECTED. The U. S. Mint is now preparing the dies for the 1967 Panama Proof Sets. An early delivery is expected in the last quarter of this year. This is just a matter of a few months away — Order your sets promptly to avoid possible disappointment!

IMPORTANT NOTICE —

The acceptance of orders is contingent upon the mint's ability to meet the demand. Each order must be accompanied by your remittance, and orders are limited to 25 sets per person or firm. The Republic of Panama reserves the right to reduce or cancel any order. In the event of a reduction or cancellation of your order, full refund will be made on any undelivered sets.

"Introducing a Remarkable New Payment Plan"

We have received numerous requests asking for a lower minimum on our Payment Plan. After careful consideration we have decided to comply with these requests. Commencing immediately the new minimum order on Payment Plan is 50 Dollars. WITH 12 MONTHS TO PAY.

As soon as we receive your 10% deposit, we will send you a contract for our mutual protection. The coins will then be packed, labeled, and stored in our vaults under your name. Immediately upon receipt of your final payment, the coins will be rushed to you.

Our only requirement is that we receive at least one payment a month. There are no interest or hidden charges. Our advertised price is all you pay.

Write today for our latest catalogue which features

- U. S., Foreign & Ancient Gold
- Foreign Proof Sets
- Unc. Foreign World Coin Sets
- U. S. & Canadian BU Year Sets
- Maundy Sets
- Silver Crowns and Coins of the World
- Ancient Silver Coins
- Brilliant Uncirculated Rolls from Pennies to Halves
- BU Sets of Lincoln Pennies, Wartime Silver Nickels, Roosevelt Dimes, Washington Quarters, Franklin Halves (all in Whitman Bookshelf Albums)
- And full information on our remarkable new Payment Plan.

HASTY SELLING VS. QUICK BORROWING

Selling your collection can be profitable if you have enough time to find the best prices. But a collection sold quickly is seldom sold profitably.

In any emergency, borrow the money you need at Edelman's. Use your collection as collateral and still retain complete ownership.

At Edelman's, you can obtain quick confidential loans for any amount up to 80% of the value of your properties — from $50 to $50,000 and more. Take as long as 30 months to pay with a repayment plan tailored to your specific needs. Your collection will be safely protected in Edelman's air-conditioned vaults until you reclaim it. Write today for further information.

COINS FROM COMMONWEALTH

Colonial Coins

We maintain a select stock of American colonial coins, all carefully attributed and unconditionally guaranteed to be genuine. We are happy to ship on approval upon the receipt of references. We believe you'll be pleasantly surprised at our prices. Won't you give us a try?

We are also interested in purchasing colonials, common or scarce varieties, individual pieces or entire collections. If you are considering the sale of your coins, we would appreciate the opportunity of making an offer. All communications will be promptly and courteously acknowledged.

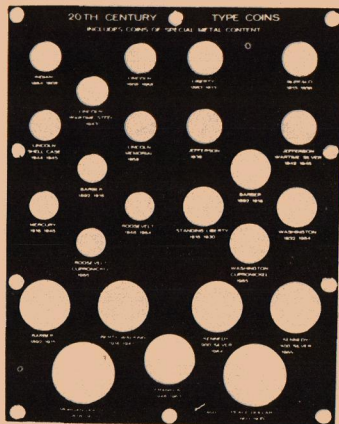

IT PAYS TO DO BUSINESS WITH COMMONWEALTH!

Why Keep Coins in a Plastic Holder?

Obviously for the superb eye appeal they present, but more important to preserve your coins' value. A CAPITAL holder prevents fingerprints, scratches and will keep so called black "Carbon Spots" from destroying the coin. These spots may be formed by moisture from the mouth, a sneeze or just someone talking animatedly. The acidity present has its effects. May we suggest wiping the coins with a very soft chamois before placing them in a holder. A CAPITAL HOLDER OF COURSE!

20th CENTURY TYPE COINS HOLDER No. 460

Only 8x10 in size with spaces for 24 coins. (This includes the clad coins). Available in black, white, blue, green or red.

SCRAPBOOK READERS GET A LOT THAT OTHERS MISS

Several of Whitman's Reference Series Books and Hewitt's Information Series Books first appeared as Numismatic Scrapbook Magazine articles and from 10 to 20 NSM articles are reviewed in each issue of the American Numismatic Society's "Numismatic Literature"—graphic testimony to the lasting importance of the editorial content. Back numbers have a market value from $2.00 to $25.00 per volume, so by becoming a regular subscriber you almost have your cake and eat it too!

NEW AND RECENT ISSUES

The demand for new and recent issues is increasing daily, and as one of the first dealers to bother with them, they represent a substantial part of my lists. Each month I list the new arrivals (both new types and new dates of old (types) along with older coins received during the month.

My prices are reasonable, and while we do not have everything, sooner or later most new items reach us.

It will pay you to write for my stock list (which contains recent issues along with older coins) and the monthly list, which is up-to-date on new issues when released. If you are a dealer, please write on letterhead for the current wholesale list. No charge, of course.

Experimental Issue of 1935 Silver Certificates
The famous "R" and "S" Notes

Issued in June 1944 as an experiment to test the quality of regular and special paper. The red "R" indicating regular paper and the red "S" the experimental paper, made of special chemicals. The results of the experiment were not conclusive.

Only 1,184,000 pairs were imprinted. After a period of circulation almost all of these notes found their way back to the Treasury, making the supply very short for collectors. All of these notes are very scarce and when found in new condition, they are indeed very rare.

We offer absolutely perfect notes in crisp uncirculated condition.

RARE NORSE MEDAL SET

Norse Silver Medal. Massive (3 in.), weight almost 5 oz. Only 75 were struck.

Indeed a Magnificent work of art

Norse Gold Medal. Only 100 were struck but, being a Gold Rarity, it is indeed far more elusive

Norse Thick Medal. The small "normal size" familiar to most collectors

Norse Thin Medal. Same, but struck on a Thin Planchet

The Above Set of four, sold only as a Complete Unit.....
